Statement of Philosophy for Intercollegiate Athletics

The athletics program at Wright State University is recognized as an integral part of the total educational process. The athletics program is designed to contribute to the total development of the student-athlete's health, fitness, skill, leadership, and respect for others.

Wright State University's intercollegiate athletic representatives are student-athletes, coaches and staff who are instructed on and dedicated to the principles of fair play and amateur competition as defined by the rules of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. It is the responsibility of the athletics administration and coaches to insure that the entire program is in full compliance with all pertinent rules and regulations.

Objectives of the intercollegiate athletics program at Wright State University are to:

1. provide a form of student activity which is generally accepted part of collegiate life.
2. provide opportunities for the development of unique skills and abilities to a diverse segment of the male and female student population.
3. provide the opportunity and motivation for participation in sports activities for a broad segment of the male and female student population.
4. provide a vehicle which is a recognized builder of morale and esprit de corps among students, staff, and alumni.
5. create an awareness of and support for Wright State University within the region, state and nation.
6. sponsor a breadth of programs which will provide student-athletes with the opportunity to compete on a local, regional, or national level. Within this objective, programs will be funded and expectations generated which will provide each program or individual with the opportunity to achieve success.
7. provide an environment in which the student-athlete will learn the value of fair play, the necessity of obeying rules and regulations, and the necessity to perform up to prescribed academic standards.

Media Services

The 2008–09 media guide is designed to assist your coverage of the Wright State University women's basketball team. Additional information is available by contacting the sports information office at (937) 775-2831.

Credentials

Season credentials will be issued to local reporters, columnists, etc. prior to the first game. If you have not received a season pass in the past, you must contact the sports information office. Game-by-game passes will be issued by as-needed situations, depending on available space. These passes must be requested at least three days in advance of the game and will be distributed at entrance #9 off parking lot #5.

Parking

Season parking passes will be distributed to local media prior to the first game. Press parking will be in parking lot #5 until filled. Individual requests must be made at least five days in advance.

Interviews

Interviews during the week must be arranged through the SID office or with the basketball office. Media may come to practice and talk to players before or after practice but may not contact student-athletes outside these times or outside pre-arranged times. Home phone numbers will not be given out. Coach Williams can be reached Monday through Friday in the morning at (937) 775-2771.

Practices

Practices are generally closed unless permission is granted through Coach Williams and the sports information office.

Photographers

Passes will be handled same as above. Still and video photographers are limited to work the end lines as designated or the concourse level. Visiting teams will be supplied one video copy of the game. Team videographers may tape the game from the platforms on the concourse level if space permits.

Radio

Permission to broadcast games from the Nutter Center must be granted from the SID office a week in advance of the game. Under reciprocal agreements, the official radio station of the home and visiting teams will receive up to two phone lines. Additional lines or unofficial outlets may purchase phone lines for $75 each if available. Each radio station will receive broadcast space for two.

Phone Lines

Phone lines at court side and in the press room have been set up for collect or reverse charges only.

Television

All requests to televise Wright State University basketball must be made in writing before the season and should be directed to Assistant Athletics Director/Sports Information Director Bob Noss.

Greg Gahr's Memorial Press Room

Named for the late Greg Gahr—The Voice of the Raiders for 15 years—the Greg Gahr's Memorial Press Room is located on the court level just outside the open end of the arena. Counter space, electric and phone lines will be available as well as stats, notes and score sheets.

Services

Statistics, notes and refreshments will be available in the press room before the game. A copy machine is located in the press room, and a fax machine is located on the third floor in the SID office. Stats monitors will be supplied to official radio and television outlets and then to unofficial outlets when available.

Following the Raiders

On the Internet: Daily updates and score updates as well as other information can be accessed through wsuraiders.com, while stats for WSU and other Horizon League schools can be accessed through horizonleague.org.

Videostreaming: All 13 of Wright State's home games will be video-streamed live on the internet as well as all nine Horizon League road contests and the Horizon League Tournament. A link to where the home games can be viewed can be found at wsuraiders.com.

Bridgett Williams Radio Show

The Bridgett Williams Radio Show will broadcast from various Fricker's locations throughout the Miami Valley six times during the season from 8:00–8:30 p.m. Those dates are:

Monday, November 17
Monday, December 15
Monday, January 12
Monday, January 26
Monday, February 16
Monday, February 23

It can be heard throughout the Miami Valley on WONE 980 AM, and WIZE 1360 AM.

About this Year's Guide...

The theme for the 2008-09 media guide is the Wright Brothers, inventors of aviation and the first flight.

A replica of the 1911 Wright "B" Flyer is featured on the front and back cover of the media guide. Special thanks to Keith Cole at UTC and the staff and crew at the Wright "B" Flyer Hangar and Museum.

Between pages are shots taken at the Air Force Museum, located just minutes from our campus. Again special thanks to Keith Cole at UTC and the museum staff.

In addition, the women's basketball program also want to pay special tribute to our university by acknowledging its 40th birthday.

2008-2009 Season Outlook

The Wright State women's basketball team was the surprise story of the Horizon League last season. Picked seventh in the preseason poll, the Raiders struggled in the early going with a tough nonleague schedule, dropping their first five games of the season and going 2-8 heading into their final nonconference matchup with Evansville.

One-point home wins over the Purple Aces and Milwaukee in the League opener, however, started WSU on its turnaround and the Raiders finished the year at 16-16 overall, tied for second in the conference at 11-7 and advanced to the Horizon League championship game for the second time in four years.

Unlike last season, which saw six of the 13 players make their collegiate debuts, Wright State will have a great deal of experience returning in four starters and nine letterwinners overall. The Raiders, though, will again be one of the younger teams in the Horizon League, if not all of Division I, as the 13-player roster consists of just one senior and three juniors.

"Last year was a breakthrough season for our program," says eighth-year head coach Bridgett Williams, who was named the 2007-08 Horizon League Co-Coach of the Year. "We were very young and battled through some injuries early, but we gained momentum as the season progressed and made a run at the end to the championship. Hopefully, with our returning experience and the addition of our three freshmen, that success will carry over on to this season."

RETURNERS

Leading the list of Raider returnees is sophomore guard Shey Peddy, who was named to the League's Preseason First Team in 2008-09 after being chosen as the League Newcomer of the Year last season as well as to the League's First Team and All-Defensive Team.

Peddy last season became the fourth Raider ever to be named First Team All-Horizon League, joining Reggen Stewart, Tiffany Webb and Brittney Whiteside. She also was the eighth Raider to be chosen to the All-Newcomer Team since Wright State came into the league in 1994-95 and just the third to be selected as the Newcomer of the Year, along with Timothea Clemmer and Whitney Lewis.

With her 31-point performances against North Dakota State and Cleveland State in the Horizon League Championship game, Peddy became just the fourth player in WSU history to score 30 or more points in a game more than once. Peddy, who ranked third among all freshmen nationally in scoring (16.7), also appeared in the national rankings in steals per game (3.2) and field goal percentage (.539).

Despite missing the first six games and not starting until the ninth contest of the season due to injury, sophomore guard LaShawna Thomas also put together a solid freshman campaign as she joined Peddy on the Horizon League All-Newcomer Team. Thomas averaged 11.4 points per game as she scored 18 or more points on four occasions, including 24 in a home win over Loyola that saw her hit 11 of 13 shots. She also averaged 3.2 rebounds and two assists per game.

Junior guard Kanisha Ward, who started the first 17 games and made 18 starts overall in 2007-08, is WSU's third top returning scorer as she averaged 6.6 points per game. Ward hit 12 foul shots in scoring 15 points at Cal Poly and had 15 more as she connected on four three-pointers in leading the Raiders to a win over Canisius. She tallied 12 points off the bench in a key win at Valparaiso and had 11 points at Detroit in a return to her hometown.

Junior forward Erica Richardson averaged 6.1 points and 3.3 rebounds per game last season as she appeared in 22 games and made 17 starts. She shot 55 percent from the field and scored in double figures three times, including 12 against Milwaukee in the League semifinals.

Charné Dixon joined the Raiders last season from Franklin Pierce College and took over the point guard role as the junior recorded 68 assists and 42 steals in playing all but one game with 17 starts. She scored 11 points in a win at Valparaiso and had eight points and six assists in WSU's near upset at Green Bay.

Three sophomores also return in forward Tatianna Hall, who became a key player off the bench for the Raiders as she shot 74 percent from the foul line, forward Tanni Scott and guard Paige Lowe, who appeared in 21 and 14 games off the bench in 2007-08, respectively.

Mallory Wyrick, the lone senior on the Raider squad this season, rounds out the list of returnees for the Raiders as the walk-on guard, in her first year at WSU after transferring from UNC Wilmington, played in five games last season.

NEWCOMERS

Along with the nine returnees, the roster features four newcomers, including a transfer who is eligible to play this season. Sophomore forward Ta-myra Davis, a transfer from Youngstown State, sat out last year due to NCAA requirements. During her freshman year with the Penguins, Davis averaged 3.9 points and 4.3 rebounds per game. Davis, though, came on strong late in the season as she averaged 12.7 points and 6.7 rebounds while shooting 64 percent from the field overall the final three games. Davis recorded her first career double-double (19 points, 10 rebounds) at Butler and also had 11 points and six rebounds against Wright State.

Guard Maria Bennett was an Honorable Mention Division I All-Ohio selection as she averaged 16 points and 5.1 rebounds per game at Anderson High School in Cincinnati as a senior. Forward Molly Fox averaged 18.4 points, 10.1 rebounds and 4.4 blocks per game for Brown County High School in Indiana as a senior while forward Ta'mikka Snoddy was a Third Team Division II All-Ohio pick as she averaged 16.3 points per game and shot 59 percent from the field for Cambridge High School.

SCHEDULE

Wright State again faces a tough schedule in 2008-09, especially considering that seven of the first eight games on the slate will be away from the Nutter Center.

WSU opens the season on Saturday, November 22, with a matchup at Evansville, a team that advanced to the Women's NIT last season. After a visit to Eastern Kentucky on November 25, the Raiders will compete in the first of two regular-season tournaments on the schedule this season in the RMU Thanksgiving Tournament in Moon Township, Pennsylvania. Along with host Robert Morris and Wright State, the tournament field includes IUPUI, who the Raiders will play on November 29, and Howard.

Wright State finally opens the home portion of its schedule on Tuesday, December 2, against local rival Miami, the latest home opener for any team in the Horizon League this season. Following the Miami matchup, the Raiders fly out the next day for the Hukilau Invitational, which marks the program's third-ever appearance in Hawaii. WSU takes on BYU on Friday, December 5, and BYU-Hawaii on Saturday, December 6.

Returning to the mainland, Wright State heads to Ball State before wrapping up the nonleague and 2008 portions of its schedule with three straight home games against local rivals in Cincinnati, Dayton and IPFW.

The 18-game Horizon League slate, which begins the first weekend of January, comprises the rest of the schedule. The Raiders will play most of their League games in a travel partner, Thursday-Saturday format with two exceptions. The first exception is the Chicago trip to open the conference slate, which will be played on Saturday and Monday due to New Year's Day being on a Thursday this year.

The other exception will be during the first weekend of February as the matchup at Butler has been moved to Friday, February 6 so that the game can be televised live on ESPNU. It will be the second appearance on the network in as many years for the Raiders as last year's Horizon League championship game was also on ESPNU. WSU will then play at Valparaiso on Sunday, February 8.

The Horizon League Tournament begins on Monday, March 9, with the opening round, followed by the quarterfinals on Wednesday, March 11, the semifinals on Friday, March 13, and the championship on Sunday, March 15, again televised live on ESPNU.

"Our nonleague schedule will again be very challenging with two tournaments and with seven road games overall," says Williams. "The Horizon League race will probably be as tight as it has ever been this season, with at least six teams factoring in it."

With a mixture of youth and experience along with a challenging schedule, it should be an exciting season of Wright State women's basketball.

COACHES

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Bridgett Williams, Head Coach

To: Prospective Student Athletes, Parents and Coaches

Welcome to Wright State University Women's Basketball. We are excited for another year of basketball, after finishing second in the regular season and competing with a young team in the finals of the Horizon League tournament. Our program has excelled to higher levels in all aspects.

The theme for the 2008-09 media guide is the Wright Brothers, inventors of aviation and the first flight. A replica of the first plane is featured on the front and back cover of the media guide. Between pages are shots taken at the Air Force Museum, located just minutes from our campus. In addition, we also wanted to pay special tribute to our school by acknowledging its 40th birthday.

Other things to note in the media guide are the three components of our program that form our foundation: the person, the student and the athlete.

Vision: We have a program that fosters growth beyond the court. Our student athletes are developed at this level in the areas of relationships, communication and career.

Person: Keeping each student athlete accountable for responsibilities off the court has helped developed very responsible young ladies. Our young women are required to manage their time, speak in the community, fundraise as a team and attend retreats for setting goals personally and athletically.

Students: We currently have a 100% graduation rate and most of our players graduate within four years with good grade point averages. We have an excellent support system in place through our university and athletic department to help make this possible.

Athlete: We expect our players to continue their growth as a player by getting in gym before, during and after season. We have made a commitment to each of our players and we expect commitment back from them, as well. This philosophy has helped our program become one of the winningest teams in the history of Wright State University.

If your philosophy matches ours, we would love to hear from you. On behalf of my staff and team, we wish you the best in your season. Have a great year!

Sincerely,

Bridgett Williams

Bridgett
Williams

Head Coach
Eighth Year

Bridgett Williams enters her eighth season at Wright State and is in her 10th year overall as a head coach. Williams, though, already has many experiences in building a program from the ground up and in maintaining established, successful programs, and looks to use those experiences in continuing to build the Raider program.

After being picked seventh in the Horizon League preseason poll, Wright State came on strong last season by going 11-7 in the League, tying the 2004-05 team for WSU's most wins ever in conference play, and finished in a tie for second in the standings.

Wright State then advanced to the Horizon League championship game for the second time in four years, with freshman guard Shey Peddy earning All-Tournament honors by scoring 73 points in three games, including 31 in the finals.

Peddy became the fourth Wright State player ever to be named First Team All-League and the third chosen as the Newcomer of the Year. Peddy and fellow guard LaShawna Thomas were All-Newcomer Team selections, raising the total to nine in the 14 years that WSU has been a part of the League.

As a result of the Raiders' success, Williams was named as the Horizon League Co-Coach of the Year along with Green Bay's Matt Bollant.

The 2007-08 campaign added another chapter of success to the program, one that has seen growth during Williams' tenure.

In 2005-06, the Raiders posted a winning record at home for the third straight year at 6-5 after not previously reaching the milestone since 1997-98. Wright State also gave #7 Ohio State quite a battle well into the second half on the road, trailing just 53-45 with 11 minutes left to play.

The 2004-05 season saw WSU have its most successful campaign ever in Division I. The 19-11 overall record was the best for the program at the Division I level and the 19 wins were the second-most ever in the 35-year history of the program. The 9.5-game improvement from the season before (9-20) was the third-best of any Division I team from 2003-04, trailing just Robert Morris and Cal State Northridge.

In the Horizon League, the Raiders posted their first-ever winning conference record at 11-5 and tied for second in the standings, making it the highest conference finish ever as well.

Wright State was 10-6 at home, the most since moving to the Nutter Center in 1990-91 and since winning 11 home games in 1987-88, the first season in Division I. The Raiders also had their highest road win total at 8-5, which included a 6-2 mark in Horizon League play.

WSU also picked up its first neutral court win in seven years with a decision over BYU (a later Women's National Invitation Tournament participant) at the Hilton Woodland Hills Beach Classic and that game also gave the Raiders a 6-5 nonleague record, their first winning mark since 1995-96.

In 2003-04, Wright State hosted a league tournament game for the first time and won just its second post-season game ever as the Raiders defeated Youngstown State in overtime in the first round of the Horizon League Tournament.

During the 2002-03 campaign, Wright State recorded its first-ever win over a ranked team as the Raiders defeated #16 Green Bay 73-70 at the Nutter Center on January 25.

WSU has also posted a 38-28 mark in Horizon League play over the past four seasons after going 20-42 in such games the four years before.

Named the fifth head coach in Raider history on June 4, 2001, Williams came to Wright State after being the head coach of Chicago State. In just two short seasons there, Williams made great strides with the Cougars, picking up 10 wins in 2001, the second-most in school history, after not winning a game the season before and totaling nine wins altogether over the previous seven years. Chicago State also set a school record during the 2000-01 season with eight home wins and the seven league wins were two more than the total earned by the team in Mid-Con play over the previous six seasons. Chicago State then capped things off by advancing to the second round of the Mid-Continent Conference Tournament for the first time ever. As a result, Williams was selected as the conference's Coach of the Year.

Away from the court, Williams also made an immediate impact as two Chicago State players were named to the Academic All-Conference Team and, in 2000, she conducted the first basketball camps sponsored by the women's basketball program in Chicago State's history.

Prior to arriving at Chicago State, Williams served as the recruiting coordinator at fellow Horizon League member UIC. She was instrumental in UIC's signing of a top 20 class in 1999. She was also an assistant coach at Kansas State University for two years, an assistant at the University of Wisconsin for two years, and an assistant at her alma mater, Southern Illinois-Carbondale, for two years.

During her tenure at Kansas State (1996-98), Williams' recruiting and coaching efforts contributed to the Wildcats' first NCAA tournament appearance in 10 years in 1997. She was also the academic liaison between the basketball staff and academic affairs office. She coordinated all academic activities of the team, and saw seven players earn grade point averages of 3.0 or better, with six players earning Academic All-Big 12 honors.

While at Wisconsin (1994-96), she worked under the tutelage of Jane Albright-Dieterle. She served as the assistant recruiting coordinator and formulated strategy that signed the No. 8 recruiting class in the nation in 1995. In part because of her efforts, Wisconsin had its first winning season in 10 years, received back-to-back NCAA tournament bids, and posted consecutive 20-win seasons.

Williams was a standout player for Southern Illinois-Carbondale from 1984-88. During her junior season, she was named her team's captain and most valuable player, Most Valuable Player of the Gateway Conference, Most Valuable Player of Women's Intercollegiate Athletics at SIU-Carbondale, and a Kodak All-America selection. The Salukis earned their first NCAA tournament appearance in 1986 and returned to the tournament in 1987. She was inducted into the Southern Illinois-Carbondale Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993 and named to the Missouri Valley Conference's All-Centennial Team in 2007.

Williams earned a bachelor of science in advanced technical studies in 1988, and a master of science in vocational educational studies/business education in 1991. Formerly Bridgett Bonds, she is married to Kevin Williams and they have an 11-year-old son, Brandon, and a seven-year-old daughter, Kirsten.

Kevin
Williams

Assistant Coach
Eighth Year

In his eighth year at WSU, Kevin Williams is a man with many hats as he serves as Life SKILLS coordinator as well as an assistant coach with the women's basketball team.

As Life SKILLS coordinator, Williams is responsible for housing and community service opportunities for all Wright State athletes.

On the coaching side, Williams brings a great deal of experience to Wright State as he has coached on both the scholastic and intercollegiate levels.

At the college level, Williams was part of the women's basketball coaching staff at Chicago State in 2000-01, where he assisted in such areas as game strategy, position skill development, scouting and game preparation. He also served two years as the head men's basketball coach for the Wisconsin-Rock County Rattlers, a junior college located in Janesville, Wisconsin.

At the scholastic level, Williams coached junior high boys basketball for three years at Unity Point in Carbondale, Illinois, and was an eighth grade assistant football coach for Fort Riley Middle School in Fort Riley, Kansas.

The husband of Bridgett Williams, Kevin graduated from Kansas State in 1997 with a degree in child psychology.

Jenerrie
Everette

Assistant Coach
Third Year

Jenerrie Everette is her third season as an assistant coach with the Wright State women's basketball team.

Prior to joining the Raider staff in May, 2006, Everette was at Longwood University, where she was an assistant for one season. She was the recruiting coordinator for the Lancers and also worked in areas such as supervising forward/post play, scouting and skill development. Prior to Longwood, Everette was an assistant coach for one year at her high school alma mater, Northland High School in Columbus.

Everette played collegiately at the University of Kentucky and earned Academic All-Southeastern Conference honors in 2003 and 2004. She also served as vice-president of Athletes in Action campus ministries and additionally worked UK's camps during the summers of 2002 and 2003. During the summer of 2004, she was an intern for the L.A. Urban Project via Athletes in Action in Los Angeles, instructing inner-city youths on the fundamentals of basketball through clinics and motivational speeches.

A native of Muskegon, Michigan, Everette earned her bachelor's degree in sociology from Kentucky with an emphasis in sports studies. She resides in Fairborn with her son, Jayce Tristian, who was born in June 2008.

Joshua
Snyder

Assistant Coach
Third Year

Joshua Snyder is in his second season as an assistant coach for the Wright State women's basketball team after serving as the program's Director of Basketball Operations during the 2006-07 season.

Snyder came to WSU from Olivet Nazarene University, where he was an assistant coach on the men's basketball team the past two years. During the 2005-06 season, the Tigers went 23-11 and won the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference regular season title. ONU also appeared in the NAIA Division I Tournament and advanced to the Elite Eight by knocking off the top-ranked team in the country in Mountain State.

Prior to Olivet Nazarene, Snyder was an assistant coach for four years with Athletes in Action on its USA tour. He also served as a co-head coach of AIA's Southeast Asia tour in 1999.

A standout at Cincinnati Christian University, Snyder was a NCCAA Division II Second Team All-American for the Eagles in 1994-95. A team captain as a junior and senior, he finished his career seventh on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,459 points and fourth in rebounds with 534. He hit 578 career field goals, with 111 coming from three-point range.

After ending his playing career, Snyder served as the head coach of the women's basketball team at Cincinnati Christian from 1995-97.

Along with his playing experience, Snyder has served in various roles at different camps. He was a summer basketball camp coach at Cincinnati Christian and at Southern Illinois University. His experience with Athletes in Action also allowed him to be a summer basketball camp director for five years.

A native of Hillsboro, Ohio, Snyder earned a bachelor's degree in Christian education from Cincinnati Christian in 1996 and a master's degree in education from Oliver Nazarene in 2006.

He and his wife, Tiffany, live in Xenia with their one-year old daughter, Morgan.

Erin

Director of Basketball Operations
Second Year

While Erin Anderson is in just her second year with the women's basketball staff as the Director of Basketball Operations, she is very familiar with Wright State athletics as she has been a part of the department for the past five years.

Originally a part of the sports information staff, Anderson assisted with game-day duties in several sports, including statistics for volleyball and as the official scorer for men's and women's basketball home games.

After serving as a student-worker in the athletic department offices, helping coaches from all sports with various tasks, Anderson worked two years in the Setzer Pavilion as the men's and women's basketball secretary.

A native of Lewisburg, Ohio, and a graduate of Tri-County North High School, Anderson earned a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education from WSU in 2007.

Strength and Conditioning

The Wright State women's basketball team participates in a closely supervised and scientifically designed, year-round strength and conditioning program designed to improve the overall athleticism of each individual player. The Raider program uses strength training, medicine balls, plyometrics, agility drills, and footwork drills to increase each athlete's strength, power, footwork, agility, jumping ability, and basketball-specific conditioning. By participating in this program, the athletes are also much less likely to get injured, and if they are injured, the recovery time is shortened.

A battery of tests are used to measure each player's improvement. Each athlete is tested at the start of the season, prior to the season, after the season and at the end of the school year.

Jason Bradford
Strength and Conditioning Coach

In September 2007, Jason Bradford joined the Wright State Athletic Department as the head strength and conditioning coach, working with all the athletes in all the sports.

Bradford, formerly an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies for two years, works with all the WSU student-athletes and supervises the weight facility in the Setzer Pavilion/Mills Morgan Center. His main duties include setting up strength and conditioning programs for each team and assisting with rehabilitation of injuries along with Head Athletic Trainer Jason Franklin.

Bradford also boasts experience with the Velocity Sports Center in Baltimore, Maryland, as well as several internships with Auburn University Athletics. He received his Bachelor of Science in Education from Auburn in 2002 and Masters of Education in Exercise Physiology in 2004, also from Auburn.

Jason Franklin
Head Athletic Trainer

Jason Franklin is in his first year as the head athletic trainer at Wright State, but he is no stranger to Wright State and the Nutter Center with his prior experiences.

A 1995 WSU graduate with a bachelor's degree in elementary education with a concentration in athletic training, Franklin was involved with several teams while as a student. He then served as an athletic trainer for the Springfield (OH) City Schools and at Buchholz High School in Gainesville, Florida.

From 1997–99, Franklin was a graduate assistant athletic trainer and teaching assistant at the University of Florida, earning his master's degree in exercise and sport science there in 1998.

After returning to Ohio, Franklin worked at both the Franciscan Medical Center and the Kettering Sports Medicine Center, with his main focus being the head trainer of the Dayton Bombers minor league hockey team for four seasons. Along with treatment and rehabilitation of injuries, Franklin was also responsible for all strength and condition programs.

Franklin, who joined the WSU training staff in 2003, worked with the women's basketball team for five seasons before switching to the men's basketball squad this year.

A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Franklin resides in Beavercreek with his wife, Angie, who competed in women's soccer for the Raiders from 1992–95, and daughters Sydney, age five, and Avery, born in May 2008.

Siobhan Fagan
Athletic Trainer

Siobhan Fagan joined the Wright State University Athletic Department in March of 2008 as an Athletic Trainer. She holds a dual appointment as a faculty member teaching athletic training curriculum, as well as providing service to the athletic teams.

Fagan comes to WSU with six years of experience as a Certified Athletic Trainer through the National Athletic Trainer's Association. She also holds credentials as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Fagan, formerly an Associate Athletic Trainer at Cedarville University for three years, works primarily with the women's basketball team. Her main duties include the prevention, recognition, and management of various athletic injuries, in addition to invoking all avenues of sports medicine to allow the highest level of care to help athletes achieve their peak performance.

President

Dr. David Hopkins

David R. Hopkins was appointed the sixth president of Wright State University on July 6, 2006, and assumed the office on February 1, 2007. Dr. Hopkins had served as provost of Wright State University since 2003. As the university's chief academic and operating officer, he was responsible for overseeing and guiding all of the university's academic schools and colleges, and nationally funded research centers and institutes.

A central hallmark of his tenure at Wright State has been his leadership in the implementation of the university's five-year strategic plan, a dynamic and visionary document that defines the university's role in the world and its future direction in the region and beyond.

By aligning university resources and expertise, Dr. Hopkins helped garner unanimous support and participation from faculty, staff, students, and alumni. Through their combined efforts, the university achieved several milestones and launched key initiatives set forth in the plan, including an increase in student enrollment; the addition of several new degree and certificate programs; an increase in external funding; increased effort to recruit and retain diversity in the faculty ranks; and enhanced engagement with government, business, and nonprofits to focus on emerging areas of need.

Provost

Dr. Steven Angle

As the university's chief academic officer, Steven Angle is responsible for overseeing and guiding all of the university's academic schools and colleges and nationally funded research centers and institutes. In addition, he oversees the operations of the divisions of Business and Finance, Advancement, Student Affairs, Enrollment Management, Curriculum and Instruction, and Research.

Angle is actively involved in the university's budgeting process. He is also involved in the higher education compact with the state to make Ohio public colleges and universities more accountable in return for a substantial increase in state budget support. Angle will coordinate efforts at Wright State to demonstrate the program excellence and increased affordability the state expects for its enhanced budget support.

Angle assumed the provost position at Wright State in March 2007, coming from the University of California at Riverside. A professor of chemistry, he served as dean of the College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences at UC Riverside. He is a nationally recognized researcher in the area of synthetic organic chemistry. Angle holds a bachelor's degree and Ph.D. in chemistry from the University of California at Irvine and a master's degree in chemistry from UCLA.

Vice President

Dan Abrahamowicz was appointed in 1996 as Wright State's Vice President of Student Affairs and Enrollment Services. In this capacity, he supervises a variety of University departments that provide important services and programs for Wright State's 17,000 students. These include the departments of Admissions, Campus Recreation, Career Services, Disability Services, Financial Aid, Counseling and Wellness, University Police, Residence Services, Student Health Services, Student Activities, Student Support Services, the Student Union and Campus Events, Student Judicial Services, and Intercollegiate Athletics.

Dr. Abrahamowicz is a native of Lorain, Ohio and a graduate of Marion L. Steele High School (Amherst, Ohio). He received his Bachelor of Arts degree magna cum laude in economics from Cleveland State University; the Master of Arts degree in student personnel administration from The Ohio State University; and the Doctor of Philosophy degree in counseling and human services from the University of Toledo.

Dr. Abrahamowicz, his wife Kelly, and their daughter, Katie, reside in Beavercreek.

Director of Athletics

Bob Grant

Bob Grant took the reigns of the athletics department July 1, 2008 as the school's third Director of Athletics but he was no newcomer to the department or the university. The Dayton-area native earned two degrees from WSU and worked 15 years for the Raiders, honing his skills in every area of the department.

Since joining Wright State in 1992, Grant has been involved in nearly every aspect of the athletics department including fund raising and development, supervision of personnel and programs, recruitment of coaches, budget oversight, strategic planning and marketing.

Initially hired to develop and implement a comprehensive fund raising plan for athletics, Grant cultivated and oversaw the "Raider Club" annual giving program, the Raider auction, golf outings, fan trips, special events and the department's dealer car program.

Paramount among Grant's accomplishments were the department's success under his supervision in countless fund raising and development projects, such as The Platinum Seating Program, The Mills Player Complex, Alumni Soccer Field, The Schwarz Hall of Fame Lobby, Alumni Soccer Dugouts and the Setzer Pavilion/Mills Morgan Center.

Grant spearheaded athletics department search committees that have hired over a half dozen coaches and administrators including, most recently, conference championship coaches Brad Brownell and Rob Cooper from men's basketball and baseball, respectively.

In 2006 Grant initiated the athletics department's first-ever strategic plan. This plan is currently serving as a short and long-term roadmap guiding the department into the future. Grant took over supervision and oversight for the department's $8 million budget in 2006. Monitoring closely with the athletics' business manager, Grant worked with all head coaches on fiscal issues including budget planning, preparation, management and evaluation.

Beginning in 1999, Grant took on sport supervision, closely overseeing individual teams on a day-to-day basis. Grant dealt directly with head coaches on all facets of their programs including scheduling, recruiting, academics, discipline and annual evaluations. His experience in this area included oversight of swimming & diving, women's soccer and softball programs as well as the men's basketball, men's soccer, golf and baseball programs.

In 1997 Grant directed the development of all-new athletic logos, resulting in a significant increase in the university's licensing revenue. He served on the university's licensing committee from 1997-2005, oversaw the marketing and promotions area from 1997-2002 and directed the Hall of Fame voting/induction process from 1992-2002.

Among his professional highlights, Grant was a 1994 NCAA speaker/presenter at the annual NACDA conference in Atlanta, Georgia, and was awarded the 1998 Wright State President's Award for Excellence in collaboration. He also graduated from The Sports Management Institute in January, 2006.

Grant received his MBA in marketing from Wright State in June, 2000 and is currently an adjunct instructor in the Raj Sooin College of Business. He and his wife, Kim, have a daughter, Jordan, and a son, Braden.

At Wright State University, we believe the only way to stay ahead of a rapidly evolving world is to be equally relentless about exploring innovations, approaches, and possibilities—anticipating what it will take for our students to succeed tomorrow, next year, and for years to come.

Propelled by the dual imperatives of community partnership and intellectual innovation, Wright State is a remarkable place. Our ability to effectively respond to the ever-changing needs of industry and society is evidenced by a record of success in educating over 75,000 alumni who proudly claim Wright State University as their alma mater.

Those alumni are dynamic leaders in their fields. They are judges, engineers, bankers, and artists. They are changing the way the global economy operates, educating our nation's youth, exploring new medical technologies that are saving lives, and much more.

Like the alumni included in these pages, each Wright State graduate has left an indelible mark on the university. When you are a Wright State graduate, you're among a select group of individuals who are transforming the world through leadership and service to their community. When you are a Wright State graduate, you're in good company.

"Community service is an extremely important part of my day-to-day job responsibilities."

Being the president of a bank brings with it a commitment to your community, says Ron Amos, president of the Dayton Region of U.S. Bank. And he demonstrates that philanthropic spirit every day. Amos is chair of the 2002 United Way Campaign and co-chair of the alumni phase of Wright State University's "Tomorrow Takes Flight" campaign.

A lifelong Dayton resident, Amos built a network and a career from his Wright State connections. His goal was to be the top executive at a Dayton bank, and after earning a bachelor's degree and an M.B.A. from Wright State, Amos worked his way up to president. "Wright State provided me a wonderful foundation in business and a network of fellow alumni to build my career."

Yolanda Bruce Brooks, 1989 Psy.D.

Senior Director of Player Development for the NBA

"I help teach NBA basketball players how to be professionals."

Dr. Yolanda Brooks, who for years had counseled professional football players, recently found herself advising the father of one of the high school players ticketed for the National Basketball Association. Today she focuses on personal and professional development of the younger players, coaching them on financial planning, stress management, substance abuse, and the other demands they face as they kick off their careers.

Many of the techniques Brooks uses with the NBA started at Wright State University, where as a student she set up a mentoring program for first-year minority students. "It provided the foundation for much of what I'm currently doing with these rookies. Wright State helped me incorporate who I am as a person with what I am doing professionally."

Erik Bork, 1989 B.F.A.

Filmmaker, Hollywood, California

"Thanks to my mentors, I'm doing what I've always wanted to do."

Erik Bork is making a name for himself in Hollywood. Bork's first big break came as Tom Hanks' assistant during the making of Apollo 13. He then co-produced the television miniseries From the Earth to the Moon, and soon advanced to supervising producer on Tom Hanks and Steven Spielberg's Emmy and Golden Globe award-winning miniseries Band of Brothers. Today, Bork is writing two movie scripts for HBO.

Bork's mentoring began at Wright State, where he says the level of excitement and knowledge of filmmaking was infectious. "The most important thing is to have professors who really care about you and about what they're teaching. They put Wright State on a par with any other film school you could name."

James Cannon, 1973 B.A., 1974 M.S.

Municipal Court Judge, Dayton, Ohio

"I wouldn't be where I am today without Wright State."

When opportunity comes knocking, education opens the door, says the Honorable James Cannon. One of nine children, Cannon never had a chance to go to college until he retired from the military at the age of 39. That's when he enrolled at Wright State, where in four years he earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees. That feat opened the door to law school and later, a seat on Dayton's Municipal Court, where he has served as judge since 1987.

"I was an older student, but that didn't bother anyone. There were students of all ages," he says. "Wright State provided the opportunity to get started on my education and prepared me to take advantage of opportunities that came along."

State Representative Kevin DeWine's interest in elective office was piqued nearly 30 years ago in elementary school when he helped place campaign signs for his second cousin (and now U.S. Senator) Mike DeWine's campaign for county prosecutor.

Before entering politics for himself in 2000, DeWine had a rewarding career working for a Dayton-based company, but to achieve his goals, he knew he needed a Wright State M.B.A. "Wright State has a great reputation in the business community," he says.

DeWine and his classmates didn't just read case studies about fictitious companies, they were assigned projects doing meaningful work for real companies in the Miami Valley. He still keeps in touch with many of his classmates who also are succeeding in their careers. "That speaks volumes about the quality of Wright State," DeWine says.

Academics

Megan Watson Academic Advisor

Megan Watson

Megan Watson joined the Wright State athletic staff as an academic advisor in January, 2008. Watson came to WSU from Cincinnati, where she was an academic advisor for two years.

Watson, who worked with several sports at UC, including football, will work closely with all Raider athletes, specifically men's and women's basketball. Working with head academic advisor Judy Chivers, Watson will track and monitor the academic progress of student-athletes, meet with prospective student-athletes and evaluate transcripts.

A 2000 graduate of Truman State University with a degree in communications, Watson received her master's degree in kinesiology (sport management) from Texas A&M in 2003. While at A&M, Watson served as an academic advisor and also assisted the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) as a co-advisor.

Judy Chivers Academic Advisor

Judy Chivers

Judy Chivers has become a stalwart of Raider Athletics through the years as she can be seen all around campus and the sporting events as well as tutoring in her office in the Nutter Center.

Chivers, or Miss Judy to most, serves as the main academic advisor for the male and female athletes, working closely with the basketball teams on progress, class selection and tutoring when needed. She closely monitors the student-athletes along with the coaches to ensure proper study technique and support is given when necessary.

In her 11th year at WSU, Chivers received her bachelor's degree in Mathematics from Northern Michigan University before starting a teaching career in New Mexico and Ohio. She recently received her master's of education degree from WSU. Chivers is married to Darwin and has two sons, Dan and Joel, both WSU graduates.

Academic Support Services

Wright State is proud of the academic accomplishments of its athletes. Last year, WSU student-athletes posted an average GPA of 3.0 all three quarters.

The athletics department staff includes an academic advisor, whose primary responsibility is advising and counseling approximately 260 WSU athletes. The advisor is here to help you do your best as a student-athlete.

The advisor:

- knows the courses required;
- knows the faculty and instructors for your courses;
- may communicate with faculty, staff, and other advisors on your behalf;
- respects your interests;
- helps you to choose a major; and
- encourages you to plan and think about the future.

Academic Reporting

During the year, the academic advisor meets with student-athletes on a regular basis to track their accomplishments. At the end of the academic year, the advisor completes an annual report on the academic progress of all student-athletes. This report is given to the coaches and the athletic director.

Working With Faculty and Staff

The athletic advisor also serves as a liaison between Wright State's athletics and academic communities, coordinating your interests with those of faculty and university staff. The advisor tries to establish a personal rapport with your instructors, learning their point of view, and ensuring that you stay focused on educational as well as athletic objectives.

Wright State Today

Wright State University will help your dreams take flight. Named after the inventors of powered flights, Orville and Wilbur Wright, the university carries on their tradition of innovation. And with more than 100 undergraduate degrees and nearly 50 Ph.D., masters, and professional degrees, the sky is the limit.

Come check out the beautiful 557-acre wooded main campus yourself. You'll find state-of-the-art facilities, a 200-acre biological preserve, and some of the newest, most modern student housing anywhere. Spread your wings with more than 150 student clubs and organizations.

Whether it's preparing students to take their place in our ever-changing world, conducting research that can improve our lives, or partnering with local communities and businesses, Wright State University is making an impact, both locally and globally.

Innovation Is in the Air

A rich and dynamic community of about 17,000 students, Wright State is a place where tomorrow takes flight. Located 12 miles northeast of Dayton, Ohio, Wright State is a nationally accredited state university with an impressive range of study. Its six colleges and three schools, including schools of medicine and professional psychology, offer opportunities for discovery and growth.

A full-size replica of the 1903 Wright Flyer hangs in the Dunbar Library atrium as a symbol of the Wright brother's genius and innovation. The library is home to one of the world's most complete collections of the Wright brothers' papers and memorabilia.

Personal Attention From Faculty

Most classes are small and taught by fully affiliated faculty members, 80 percent of whom hold the most advanced degrees in their fields. The faculty is dedicated to advancing the frontiers of knowledge, as well as applying it to real problems. Students gain hands-on experience through a variety of community-based programs, cooperative education, internships, service learning, and research projects.

National Recognition

Our students work hard and achieve national recognition. They're gaining valuable skills and experience by competing with some of the best schools in the nation and coming out on top!

- Only five-time winner of the National Student Case Competition, sponsored by the Institute of Management Accountants
- National Model UN Conference, top awards for 27 years
- Outstanding individual achievement for playwriting and composition from the American College Theatre Festival
- First place, Easter Region, Human Powered

Vehicle Competition sponsored by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers

- Student projects presented to the Geological Society of America
- Top nursing student in the Eastern Region of the United States Cadet Command

There's Plenty To Do

At Wright State, we're active like you. Our students are diverse, and our campus activities reflect a broad spectrum of interests and outlets. With more than 150 clubs and organizations, there's something for everyone.

If you want to soar with the birds, try skydiving. If you have political aspirations, get involved in Student Government. If you don't mind a few bumps and bruises, join the rugby team. Choose from 18 sororities and fraternities that focus on scholarship, service, and fun.

Hang out at the Student Union's extensive recreational facilities, including a fitness center, gym, racquetball and squash courts, and an Olympic-size indoor pool. Outdoor Recreation offers unique and exciting opportunities to go camping, canoeing, rock climbing, white-water rafting, skiing, horseback riding, scuba diving, and more! Bicycles, backpacks, kayaks, skis, and other equipment are available to students.

Diversity Enriches Campus Life

At Wright State, we believe that welcoming students from diverse cultures strengthens and enriches the entire campus community. Bringing these students together with an active campus life creates a rich intellectual and social experience—a complete university experience.

Wright State is a national leader in accommodating the needs of students with disabilities. Most of the 24 campus buildings are connected by a unique underground tunnel system.

Some of the Best Campus Housing

While living on campus is not a requirement, 62 percent of all first-year students choose to do so. Almost 3,000 students live in attractive residence halls on or adjacent to campus. Year after year, they say how fantastic their campus living experience has been and how great it was to stay in new, modernly equipped rooms that have all the comforts of home. You'll find nice furniture, cable TV, air-conditioning, and Internet hook-ups. Plus, all students—even first-year students—may have a car on campus.

Community Partnerships Offer Real-World Experience

Wright State provides its students with unique opportunities to help solve real-world problems by addressing the educational, cultural, social, and economic needs of the Miami Valley. Students obtain relevant hands-on learning experiences through the university's link to area corporations, community programs, health and social service agencies, and government organizations. This blending of academia with the larger community provides benefits for both. The DaytaOhio Center for Advanced Data Management and Analysis will help position Ohio as international leader in data management innovation.

Student Life at Wright State

Wright State has a diverse mixture of students with various educational goals and interests. The majority of our students, 77 percent or about

Honors dorms

13,000, are undergraduates, and of those, about 10,800 are full time. Although the majority of these students come from southwestern Ohio, many also come from other parts of Ohio, from almost every state in the nation, and from 66 other countries.

Nearly 3,000 students live in campus housing, in either traditional dormitory-style rooms, suite-style rooms, or apartments, all offering direct Internet connections. Nearly 1,800 freshman students chose to live on campus in Fall 2005.

Regardless of background and career goals, our students provide the basis for a campus rich in cultural and intellectual diversity.

Both commuting and residential students make for an active campus life. Over 150 student clubs and organizations provide recreational, professional, and entertainment activities. Also popular are the university's two theatres and concert halls, and the Student Union, which has extensive recreational facilities, including a fitness center, a small gymnasium, racquetball and squash courts, and an Olympic-size indoor pool.

Wright State students have distinguished themselves academically, both on the state and national level. For example, Wright State students compete with 200 colleges and universities from 15 different countries that debate each year at the Model United Nations program held in New York City, and now hold the longest winning streak on record of 27 years. The Ohio Society of Professional Engineers awarded our student team first place in a statewide senior design showcase. Wright State is the only four-time winner of the National Student Case Competition sponsored the Institute of Management Accountants.

In recognition of its innovations in teaching and research, the Department of Mathematics and Statistics has received Academic Challenge

Grants from the Ohio Board of Regents and highly selective external funding awards from the National Science Foundation and other federal agencies. In addition, undergraduate students in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics compete each year in the William Lowell Putnam Mathematical Competition.

The student is the focus of attention at Wright State University. Although Wright State students do not easily fall into specific categories, all are valued for their unique talents and contributions. In a supportive learning environment,

Wright State faculty challenge their students, encouraging them to realize their potential, to reach their goals, and to fulfill their dreams. As a result, Wright State continues to attract achievement-oriented students who are eager to learn.

University College

The University College programs assist students in transitioning to university life and developing the necessary skills to ensure their entrance into the Wright State college and major

The University College provides academic advising; tutoring and testing services; a leadership development program; basic courses in reading, writing, mathematics, and college student strategies; and the First-Year Seminar and learning communities. An academic advising center and mathematics learning center also offer free individualized assistance to students.

Writing Assistance

The University Writing Center provides free writing consultation. Undergraduate and graduate students are available to help students with every stage of the writing process and with assignments across the curriculum. Students may also receive help using one of the center's 13 networked computers.

The Writing Center also offers individual workshops each quarter. These specialized workshops offer review of grammar and punctuation, research formats, and essay exam preparation. The center also maintains a Writer's Hotline for students and staff.

Learning English for Academic and Professional Purposes (LEAP)

For non-native speakers of English wishing to study at an American college or university, Wright State offers the Learning English for Academic and Professional Purposes (LEAP) Intensive English Program.

Benefits of the LEAP Program include 10 weeks of instruction in small classes that allow for individual attention. The instruction includes intensive speaking, listening, reading, writing, grammar, and the latest computer technology, including Web browsing and e-mail. Students are instructed by experienced faculty with advanced degrees in teaching English as a second language or a related field, and by adjunct instructors closely supervised by more experienced faculty. The LEAP Program also features regular meetings with native English-speaking conversation partners and scheduled sessions with trained tutors in the University Writing Center.

Holders of F-1 visas must be enrolled full-time in the LEAP Program, although a part-time course of studies is available for immigrants and visitors.

University Libraries

The University Libraries are members of OhioLINK, an advanced computer network providing access to over 31 million library items in Ohio's university, college, and state library collections. Students can order books online from OhioLINK libraries and receive them for check-out within two to three days. OhioLINK resources also include scores of research databases and the full text of thousands of journals and other works.

The Libraries' information research system uses a Web-based interface to provide integrated access to local and OhioLINK resources plus many other resources available on the Internet. The Libraries' Web site is <http://www.libraries.wright.edu>.

Other Services

- Instructional sessions for all library services and resources

- Current periodicals and microfilm resources (microfilm readers and printers)
- Course reserves (online and print)
- Media collections (videos, films, preview equipment)
- 20,000 music scores and over 6,000 musical recordings
- Reference assistance (individual or group instructions and handouts)
- Interlibrary loan services for items not available at Wright State or through OhioLINK
- The Student Technology Assistance Center (STAC) offers various software and hardware plus personalized assistance for students to complete class assignments requiring electronic presentations, graphics, Web page design, and more.

Paul

Laurence Dunbar Library

The Paul Laurence Dunbar Library plays an important role in instruction and research activities at Wright State University. The library collections, among the largest in the Dayton metropolitan area, include over 703,000 bound volumes, over one million microforms, 440,000 government documents, 4,100 serial subscriptions, and more than 4,000 media or visual items. The library is open over 100 hours per week, longer during exam periods. In addition to the walk-in assistance available in the information/reference area during most hours, students may make appointments with reference librarians for in-depth assistance. Librarians also offer group instruction through a series of regularly offered workshops on topics ranging from basic research introduction to advanced searching of Web resources and specialized databases.

As a partial U.S. government documents depository, the library provides students and the general public with access to electronic and print documents, including over 30,000 geographical and topographical maps from all over the United States. The Libraries are also a designated Patent and Trademark Depository Library with collection materials accessible in the Dunbar Library.

Special Collections and Archives houses collections on aviation history, Wright State University history, and one of the most extensive collections of Wright brothers materials, including more than 4,000 original photographs made by the Wrights to document their achievements.

Computer Resources

Computing and Telecommunications Services (CaTS) provides service and support for university telephones, campus networking, Internet access, and administrative and student computing resources. Wright State students are encouraged to use these resources to enhance their learning experience. CaTS maintains computer labs (most open 24 hours) with computers networked to international resources, laser printers, and numerous software applications to complement students' classroom activities. The computers in these labs not only provide desktop applications, but also provide access to larger computer platforms, such as our UNIX system, the University Libraries databases, and other Internet resources. Wright State has a strong commitment to providing accessibility to all students. In support of this commitment, a variety of adaptive technologies are available to provide computer access to students with physical disabilities.

All students should obtain a CaTS CAMPUS account. The CAMPUS account provides them with the account name and password necessary to access the Internet, e-mail, and other computing resources. Accounts also provide personal and class disk space on the network file servers. With their CAMPUS account and a Web browser, students can access the Internet from home using the CaTS modem banks. Student accounts remain active only as long as they are enrolled in classes.

Career Services

The central purpose of Career Services is to help students prepare for academic and career success. Freshmen and sophomores are assisted with career assessment, values clarification, and occupational data to help them make informed choices of academic majors. Students are also provided opportunities for experiential learning (internships) and discovering the relationship of skills acquired to the broader work world. Career Services helps prepare graduating seniors to be successful candidates by helping them translate their academic and co-curricular experiences into successful job campaigns or graduate school applications.

Specific services include: a computerized career exploration program, Choices; an interest inventory, the Self-Directed Search; a personality assessment, the MBTI; a web resume registration, UNCW Experience; internship resources; workshops on a wide range of topics from choosing an academic major to job search strategies; a career resource library; job listings for both part-time and full-time, including internships; on-campus recruiting; annual events such as Career Day, Education Job Fair, Internship-

Summer Job Fair, and Graduate School Day; and a home page on the World Wide Web with a directory of helpful career and employment sites.

Career Services is located in the University Union in rooms 104 and 106, open 8 a.m.–5 p.m. Monday–Friday with special drop-in hours on Mondays and Thursdays, 2–5 p.m. for students who have quick questions about resumes, job searching, cover letters, and more. Currently enrolled WSU students are eligible for all services.

Career Resources Center

The Career Resources Center (CRC), located in E334 Student Union, serves as a valuable source of information for people seeking career, job search, and employer information including job postings. In addition, computers are available for career related internet searches and to develop personal marketing tools.

SIGI Plus (System of Interactive Guidance and Information), a computerized application, allows users user to assess interests, abilities, and values to determine what occupations might be a good fit. The most frequently used option on SIGI Plus is the Information Module. A user can find information on career projections, required academic preparation, job definition and descriptions, and salary. Please allow at least 90 minutes to assess and explore options. Less time is required for a search of specialized information.

Browse the complete bibliography of print materials available for use in the Center. Resources are categorized to assist you in locating the materials needed. Categories include Job Search, Directories, Career Exploration, Experiential Education (Co-op Ed/Internships), Transition to the Workplace, Graduate School and specialized career information by college and major.

Employer Literature is found alphabetically in binders or files within the Center. Use these sources to locate basic information about a particular employer, such as services or products, reputation, growth pattern, divisions, subsidiaries, new products, and annual reports. Career Services recommends that you also use the Internet and other resources, such as networking, to identify and review company information.

Cooperative Education and Internship Programs

Provide educational opportunities consistent with a student's course of study. Opportunities may be full-time or part time. Completing one or more quarters of field experience keeps a student competitive when it is time to search for career employment. Employers seek candidates with backgrounds in practical application of their discipline. Stay current and competitive through co-op and internship programs consistent with your course of study.

Career Employment

Career-related employment provides opportunities for students looking ahead to graduation and for alumni interested in changing jobs or switching careers. Recruiters begin evaluating candidates as much as nine months prior to graduation. Career Services offers appointments, résumé reviews, mock interviews, career days and fairs, résumé postings, job postings, on-campus interviews, and Spring Training to assist with your career employment.

Cooperative Education/Internship

Co-ops and internships are field-related experiences for upper level students. In both cases, employers provide on-site supervision and opportunities for integrating academic theory with real-world practices. The co-op experience traditionally lasts more than one quarter. Co-op program structures include alternating, where students work full-time and alternate quarters of work with quarters of study; and parallel, where students work part-time and simultaneously continue their academic study. Internships are filled on a quarter by quarter basis. Both types of employment may be either full- or part-time. A paid position yields a larger, more diverse pool of qualified candidates than a position with no compensation.

The Setzer Pavilion/Mills Morgan Center

The Setzer Pavilion opened in August 2005 as a state of the art facility that puts Wright State on a plateau that is equal to the major Division I programs around the country. Combined with academic program excellence, Wright State is at the highest echelon of the Horizon League and has the facilities to develop blue-chip student-athletes.

The venue is nearly 30,000 square feet, including a gymnasium, strength and conditioning room and coaches offices as well as locker rooms, video rooms and player lounges, as well as a state-of-the-art eye center.

Wright State University is committed to national prominence in both academics and athletics and this facility will only enhance this commitment.

The Nutter Center

There's no place like home. And there's no place quite like the Nutter Center, home to the Wright State Raiders.

The Nutter Center, Southwest Ohio's premier sports and entertainment complex, is home to the Wright State men's and women's basketball teams, as well as the Wright State volleyball team.

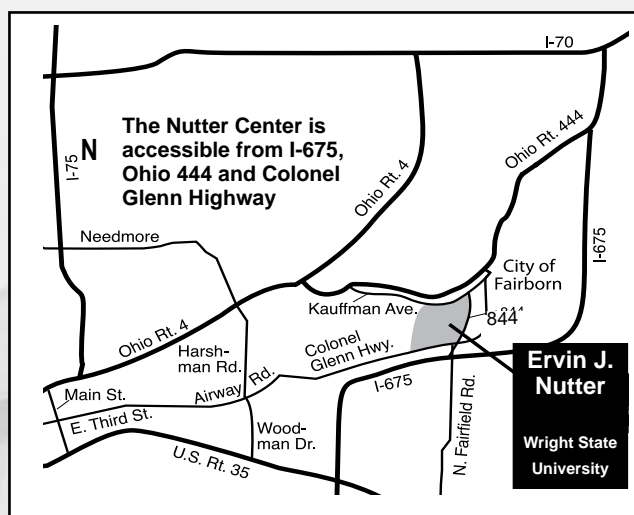

Set on the beautiful campus of Wright State University, the Nutter Center Arena seats up to 11,500 people. Housed within the building are four additional basketball courts, a recreational running track, a fully equipped fitness center, a multipurpose room, dressing rooms, classrooms, and 60,000 square feet of exhibition space.

Just 19 years old, the Nutter Center's standard of excellence has been acknowledged worldwide. Industry Publications has ranked the Nutter Center one of the top 20 arenas of its size in the country every year since it opened. The Nutter Center has remained one of the premier stopping points for major concert tours of every musical genre, the finest family shows, and top-touring ice shows including Kenny Chesney, Blue Man Group, Michael Bublé, Elton John, Carrie Underwood, Rascal Flatts, KISS, Martina McBride, The Wiggles, Harlem Globetrotters, Cher, Larry the Cable Guy, Toby Keith, U.S. Hot Rod Thunder Nationals (Monster Trucks), Tina Turner, Arenacross, Motley Crue, Guns 'N' Roses, Aretha Franklin, Tim McGraw, Neil Diamond, Barry Manilow, Green Day, Mercy Me, Trans-Siberian Orchestra, Garth Brooks, Cirque du Soleil, Reba McEntire, Rod Stewart, Frank Sinatra, Alan Jackson, Aerosmith, Champions on Ice, Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, Disney on Ice, WWE, and many more.

The Nutter Center has also become home for high profile sporting events including regional and state high school volleyball, basketball, and wrestling tournaments. In addition, the Nutter Center is home to the ECHL Dayton Bombers Hockey team.

The Miami Valley

A Vibrant Community on the Move

The Dayton area is rich in cultural offerings including the performing arts, historical parks, museums, cultural festivals and community celebrations. The university is located close to a wide array of restaurants and stores, with the region's largest shopping mall about a mile from the campus. A popular river corridor along the Great Miami River offers 26 scenic miles of walking, jogging, and cycling trails.

The city of Dayton is a city of innovation. From the Wright brothers' first airplane to Charles F. Kettering's first self-starting automobile ignition system to the cash register and automated teller machine, Dayton has a rich heritage of invention and innovation.

Dayton has been the home for other notable Americans as well, including the poet Paul Laurence Dunbar and candy creator Esther Price. Phil Donahue and Erma Bombeck once lived across the street from one another in a Dayton suburb.

Dayton

The Value of Variety

Dayton has flourished from a firm foundation of innovation and industrial expertise. Inventions from Dayton—including powered flight, the cash register, and countless others in the automotive and aerospace industries have built a strong core for the region's economy.

Today's healthy local economy is more diversified, fueled by a mixture of companies of many sizes and industries. This diversity is more important since it provides economic stability and prevents overreliance on any single sector.

A century ago, small businesses and entrepreneurs put Dayton on the map, and they remain a high priority to this day. The region is bustling with momentum with more than 19,000 new business start-ups from 1996–2001. Local business and community leaders are committed to supporting entrepreneurs and nurturing new businesses through mentoring, technical assistance, and innovative programs such as the Entrepreneurs Center, a downtown-based technology incubator.

Workforce: Dayton Trains its Own

Dayton works proactively to provide programs that ensure a skilled workforce, particularly for specialized technical positions. Local officials promote the continuous training of local workers in addition to supporting the outside recruitment efforts of area technology workforce. Additionally, Dayton recently ranked fifth among medium-sized cities on the Creativity Index created through Richard Florida's research into the "Creative Class."

A Dynamic New Downtown

Thanks to this community's great visionaries and energetic workers, downtown Dayton is reinventing itself in grand style. Developments such as the Schuster Performing Arts Center, Dayton Dragons baseball, and RiverScape have sparked a new wave of interest and investment in the central business district.

In 2002, some 500 employees moved into the new corporate headquarters of Relizon in downtown Dayton. The five-story office building and parking garage occupy a site that formerly was a vacant department store.

Also downtown, the urge for urban living is being satisfied with the development of several new residential loft projects, especially appealing to young professionals and empty-nesters. With hundreds of new residents pouring in, downtown continues to add new restaurants, night clubs, and other attractions to cater to these new urbanites.

From History's Success to Today's Strength

Dayton's business composition has evolved with the times. While manufacturing continues to play a key role, comprising 18 percent of the region's total employment, the services industry employs 32 percent of the workforce and the retail and wholesale trade industry employs 23 percent. Over time, the area has developed core competencies in aerospace, information technology, composite materials, automotive manufacturing, advanced manufacturing, and logistics.

Dayton's skyline illuminated at night

Aerospace—The influence of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base on the Dayton area economy is far-reaching and profound. As the foremost research and development center of the United States Air Force, Wright-Patterson has been responsible for nearly every major innovation in U.S. military aviation. The base has truly been a catalyst for high-tech growth in the region.

The facility has a $2.4 billion annual economic impact on the region, employing 18,000 people, including some 10,000 civilians. In addition, some 19,000 jobs are provided through subcontracting and supply. The base has contributed to the Dayton region's position as one of the nation's largest concentrations of engineering talent.

In addition, several regional organizations facilitate technology transfer between Wright-Patterson and the private sector to maximize the benefits of defense-related research and development.

The aviation legacy is also evident in the private sector. The Dayton region is home to Goodrich Corporation's Division Headquarters for aircraft wheels and brakes and other leading aerospace providers such as Hartzell Propeller. Also, GE Jet Aircraft Engines is located just south on I-75. These operations have encouraged the creation of many firms that supply the commercial-aircraft industry.

Information technology—With the influence of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton has developed a substantial foundation of high-tech capabilities, especially in areas associated with the aerospace and defense industries. The Dayton region is home to more than 800 IT organizations and recently ranked in the top 20 among U.S. metropolitan areas in IT job growth, according to IT CareerWorld, an industry publication.

The Wright brothers and their flyer

In addition to the niches represented by its many smaller companies, Dayton's bellwether technology companies—LexisNexis, Reynolds and Reynolds, Standard Register, and NCR Corporation—are pacing their industries with continuous innovation.

Composite materials—When the U.S. Air Force needed a material lighter, but stronger, than steel, it turned to the Air Force Research Laboratory at Wright-Patterson. The result? Composite materials, the combination of fiber and resin. And while the Air Force fulfilled defense needs, the commercial applications became evident for products ranging from appliances to golf carts.

The only obstacle has been cost: composites are prohibitively expensive for an individual company. Undaunted, Daytonians arrived at a solution: the National Composite Center, an organization that helps to develop composite-processing techniques for commercial applications.

Automotive—The Dayton area has a rich tradition in automotive manufacturing, starting with the pioneering efforts of individuals such as Charles F. Kettering, founder of Delco. General Motors acquired Delco and subsequently located state-of-the-art laboratories and research facilities in Dayton.

In 1999, General Motors spun off the Delco company, renamed Delphi Automotive Systems, allowing Delphi to expand its business by supplying products—including chassis, thermal, energy and engine management, electrical and electronic systems—to other automakers in the international marketplace.

In addition to the 10,200 people employed at Delphi, GM employs 4,300 in the Dayton area assembling sport utility vehicles and engines. International Truck & Engine in Springfield employs 2,500. Behr America, with a major facility in Dayton, boasts a workforce of 2,400. And DMAX, a joint venture between GM and Isuzu, manufactures its award-winning diesel engine here. These large-scale automotive operations have spurred the growth of many small- to medium-sized suppliers in the Dayton region.

Advanced manufacturing—The manufacturing industry's rise to dominance in the region's economy during the 20th century created unparalleled opportunities. Today, Dayton is home to more than 26,000 skilled workers in 850 tooling, machining and related companies. In fact, the 12-county area around Dayton is North America's fourth largest tooling and machining hub.

Like most other industries, today's tooling and machining has gone high-tech. Highly-trained workers are developing new products by integrating technical manufacturing processes, microelectronics, robotics, and sophisticated automation. Local leaders have launched the Tool Valley Network, an entity that provides training and services for the area's tool and die companies.

Logistics—Five metropolitan statistical areas and more than 300 cities, towns, and villages lie within 90 minutes of Dayton. This, coupled with Dayton's ideal location at the I-70/75 intersection, has encouraged the growth of many trucking operations, warehouse facilities, and logistic-support services. In fact, the region boasts more than 650 firms in the transportation and warehousing industry.

The Dayton International Airport is just a few minutes from the I-70/75 intersection. The region's 90-minute air market ranks first nationally with more than 50 percent of the country's population and over 50 percent of the country's income within 90 minutes of Dayton by air. The airport offers more than 85 passenger flights a day with nonstop service to 17 major domestic markets, carrying 2 million passengers annually.

CHAMPIONSHIP

Horizon League Championship

The Horizon League Executive Council passed a proposal to change the Women's Basketball Championship format starting with the 2003-04 season. The new format moved the championship from a single predetermined site to multiple sites.

The first round games and the quarterfinal games will be played on campus sites. In the first round games, the No. 7 seed will host the No. 10 seed and the No. 8 seed will host the No. 9 seed. The winner of the 8/9 game will travel to the No. 1 seed for the quarterfinals while the No. 2 seed will host the winner of the 7/10 game. The No. 4 seed will host the No. 5 seed, the No. 6 seed will visit the No. 6 seed in the other quarterfinal games.

Under this format, the remaining four teams will travel to the site of the highest remaining seed for the semifinal and championship games.

During the first three years, a predetermined team was allowed the opportunity to fulfill their right to host the championship should that team advance to the semifinals. Such was the case in 2005 when Wright State, despite being the third seed, hosted both the semifinals and finals. 2007, however, marked the first year that the championship was held in a pure format, meaning that the semifinal and championship games will be played at the site of the highest remaining seed after the quarterfinal round.

The first round matchups will be on Monday, March 9, followed the quarterfinals on Wednesday, March 11. The semifinal games are slated for Friday, March 13 and the championship game will be played on Sunday, March 15.

Horizon League

Celebrating its 30th anniversary in 2008-09, the Horizon League continues to aspire toward its goal of being one of the nation's leading athletics conferences while being recognized as a leader in the development of student-athletes as leaders and role models.

The Horizon League membership features ten public and private institutions that have impressive academic reputations and a storied tradition of broad-based athletic programs. Current membership includes Butler University, Cleveland State University, the University of Detroit Mercy, the University of Illinois at Chicago, Loyola University Chicago, Valparaiso University, the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Wright State University and Youngstown State University.

The Horizon League's primary focus is on adding value to the educational experience through its four platforms of athletic performance, academic achievement, community outreach, and personal responsibility and accountability. It is the League's belief that athletics is a powerful and visible resource tool that can be used to enhance student-athletes' collegiate experience. The Horizon League's goals are to enhance the holistic university experience for the student-athlete, to create an affiliation of institutions with similar athletic goals, and to adhere to the principals of integrity, diversity, excellence and growth.

The Horizon League sponsors competition in 19 sports – nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and tennis) and ten for women (basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, tennis and volleyball). In all sports, all teams participate in their respective post-season League championships regardless of regular-season performance, allowing all student-athletes an opportunity to qualify for NCAA championships. The League receives automatic bids to NCAA championships in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

The Horizon League is headquartered in Indianapolis, the "Amateur Sports Capital of the World," with offices in the Pan American Plaza (201 S. Capitol Avenue), located a block from Lucas Oil Stadium and just minutes from Conseco Fieldhouse, the State Capitol Building, Victory Field and the NCAA national office.

A Proud History

Founded on June 16, 1979, as the Midwestern City Conference with six charter members, the League changed its name to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference in 1985 and added women's sports for the 1986-87 academic year. Charter members of the conference included current members Butler and Loyola as well as the University of Evansville, Oklahoma City University, Oral Roberts University and Xavier University. Among other current members, Detroit joined in 1980, and Cleveland State, UIC, Green Bay, Milwaukee and Wright State came aboard in 1994 in the largest non-merger conference expansion in history, with Youngstown State joining in 2001 and Valparaiso in 2007.

On June 4, 2001, the Horizon League unveiled its current name and ushered in a new dynamic direction that has brought the League closer to its stated goal of being one of the nation's top ten conferences with a focus on enhancing the student-athletes experience by upgrading the League's market and competitive positions.

Athletic Success

In the past few years, the Horizon League has enjoyed unprecedented success on the national stage, highlighted by three Sweet Sixteen appearances (Butler 2003, 2007; Milwaukee 2005) and eight wins in the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship in the past six seasons. In other sports, League teams have won at least one game in their respective NCAA Championships each of the last six seasons in men's soccer (Milwaukee 2002-05, UIC 2006-07), with UIC just one win away from the College Cup in 2007. In softball, League teams won a game in the national tournament four straight years earlier in the decade (UIC 2002, 2004; Wright State 2003; Green Bay 2005) while advancing into the second round in women's soccer three of the last four seasons (Detroit 2004, Milwaukee 2005-06). Green Bay's women's basketball team added to that résumé with a victory in the 2007 NCAA Women's Basketball Championship. Butler's Victoria Mitchell became the League's first NCAA individual champion when she won the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the 2005 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships and then finished fourth at the 2005 NCAA Cross Country Championships.

Academic Success

Horizon League student-athletes also excel in the classroom as more than 500 have been named to the Academic Honor Roll each of the past seven semesters for carrying a grade-point average of 3.2 or better, including more than 600 for the fall 2007 and spring 2008 semesters. Forty-eight student-athletes were named to ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-District teams in 2007-08, while 14 earned Academic All-America honors, including a pair of first-team selections.

Community Service

In addition to its athletics success, the Horizon League has secured a well-earned reputation for its community service initiatives.

Each January, member institutions partner with local elementary schools for an art, music and essay contest highlighting the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. with winners recognized at League games on the weekend of MLK Day.

The Horizon League Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) also has continued a tradition of working with youth in Indianapolis during its annual summer meeting, while the League, its schools and fans donate to Komen for the Cure for breast cancer awareness during its annual women's basketball championship. On campus, student-athletes have raised money and awareness for such causes as breast cancer, diabetes and hurricane relief, while hosting blood drives, neighborhood clean-ups, Big Brother/Big Sister programs and more.

Jonathan B. LeCrone
Commissioner

Sportsmanship

One of the Horizon League's points of emphasis is fostering collegial environments for competition among student-athletes, coaches, administrators and fans in a pro-active approach. Among the vehicles is the Ethical Conduct Pledge, which is signed each season by student-athletes, coaches, officials, and campus and League administrators. Its purpose is to make all the involved groups aware of the Horizon League expectations of behavior during conference events.

Demographics

Horizon League institutions boast a combined enrollment of more than 130,000 plus nearly a quarter-million living alumni centered in the League's Midwest footprint. League media markets include five of the nation's top 35 in Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Indianapolis and Milwaukee, covering more than ten million television households and encompassing more than nine percent of the nation's television audience.

Governance

The Horizon League is governed by a Board of Directors comprised of the ten member institutions' chief executive officers. Dr. David Sweet, President of Youngstown State, serves as Board Chair through June 30, 2010. Ron Strollo, Executive Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Youngstown State, serves as chair of the Executive Council, and Christine Moeller, Assistant Athletic Director/Senior Woman Administrator at Cleveland State, is the Second Delegate, while Sheila Patterson of Cleveland State serves as chair of the Faculty Athletics Representatives.

Alfreeda Goff
Senior Associate Commissioner

Leadership

Jonathan B. (Jon) LeCrone is in his 17th year as Commissioner of the Horizon League, having been named to the position on May 11, 1992, and is the ninth-longest tenured commissioner among the 33 Division I conferences. He is the fifth commissioner in League history, succeeding Daniel B. "Tucker" DiEdwardo (1989-92), James W. Shaffer (1984-89), Cecil N. Coleman (1980-84) and James J. McCafferty (1979-80). LeCrone is in the first year of a four-year term on the NCAA Division I

Leadership Council after recently completing a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee.

Visibility

The Horizon League has enhanced its media visibility with a number of initiatives. The League is in the fourth year of a five-year agreement with ESPN that includes selected regular-season men's basketball action (ESPN2) and the men's championship game (ESPN) and features increased exposures each year on ESPNU plus inclusion in the annual O'Reilly ESPNU BracketBusters, one of college basketball's premier in-season events. In addition, the Horizon League has partnered with CBS College Sports to provide the official web site at www.horizonleague.org, which offers the most comprehensive coverage of Horizon League teams on the net.

Will Roleson,
Assistant Commissioner
for Communications

Horizon League Network

The Horizon League is a recognized leader in video streaming, through the Horizon League Network (HLN), having produced more than 800 free, live events in the past three years, with plans to web cast more than 400 during the 2008-09 academic year. In addition to live games, HLN includes highlight vignettes of all 19 League championships, weekly highlight videos during the men's and women's basketball season and other special programming covering Horizon League institutions, coaches and student-athletes.

Matt Segal
Director of Communications

McCafferty Trophy

The Horizon League annually awards the McCafferty Trophy in recognition of its all-sports champion in honor of its first commissioner, James J. McCafferty. Cleveland State won its first McCafferty Trophy in school history following the 2007-08 academic year. The Vikings also captured their first Men's All-Sports Award, while Milwaukee claimed the women's honor for the third straight year and seventh time in the past eight years. As an indication of the League's competitive balance, eight of its ten schools won at least one team championship last year.

GAME 1

BOSTON COLLEGE 68, WRIGHT STATE 36
November 9, 2007, Chestnut Hill, MA

Wright State trailed by just 11 at the half and by 13 with 11 minutes to play, but Boston College closed the game with a 24-5 run as the Eagles defeated the Raiders 68-36 in the season opener for both teams Friday afternoon at Conte Forum in Boston.

WSU led 13-9 seven minutes into the game thanks to six points from Boston native Shey Peddy, making her college debut, but BC followed with an 11-0 run over the next five minutes. The Eagles extended the margin to 14 late in the first half before a Kanisha Ward three and a Sierra Crayton layup helped trim the deficit to 36-25 at the break.

The Raiders then trailed 44-31 following a Peddy layup with 12:42 remaining in the second half, only to see Boston College break the game open with a 10-0 run over a five minute span.

After shooting 50 percent in the first half, WSU hit just five of 16 shots the final 20 minutes for 31 percent and 42 percent overall while Boston College shot 48 percent in the second half to end up at 46 percent for the game.

The Eagles held a 36-15 rebounding advantage and forced Wright State into 29 turnovers while committing 16, resulting in a 18-0 differential in second-chance points and 32-6 in points off of turnovers.

Ward led the way for the Raiders with 14 points, 11 in the first half, and had four assists with three steals while Peddy added eight points, five assists and four steals. Erica Richardson and Crayton each had six.

GAME 2

BALL STATE 61, WRIGHT STATE 52
November 12, 2007, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State shot 58 percent in its home opener Monday night at the Nutter Center, but could not overcome 28 turn-overs as the Ball State Cardinals closed the game with a 22-9 run.

The Raiders came out smoking, hitting nine of their first 11 shots, three by Sierra Crayton and two each from Erica Richardson and Shey Peddy, to go up 19-9 with 10:52 remaining in the first half.

Ball State, though, started on a 24-8 run from there, taking the lead at 24-23 on a Kyleight Jones layup at the 3:55 mark and going up 33-27 at the break thanks to threes from Audrey McDonald and Emily Maggert and a three-point play by Lisa Rusche.

A Porchia Green layup opened the second half scoring for the Cardinals, but Wright State answered with a 16-4 run, capped off by a Kanisha Ward three and a Peddy fast-break layup, to go back in front 43-39 with 14:09 remaining.

Back came Ball State with an 11-2 burst, including two Shannon Klei threes, giving the Cardinals a 50-45 advantage and despite WSU cutting the deficit to 52-50 on a Peddy three with 5:15 left, BSU held on for the win by holding the Raiders to just two points the rest of the way.

Crayton led all scorers with 14 points for Wright State while Ward had 13 and Peddy 12 along with five rebounds and four assists. Danielle Duncan chipped in six points, six boards and three assists and Richardson had six points and four rebounds.

GAME 3

EASTERN MICHIGAN 74, WRIGHT STATE 41
November 17, 2007, Ypsilanti, MI

Wright State hung close with Eastern Michigan for a half, only to see the Eagles explode for 48 points the final 20 minutes Saturday afternoon in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

The Raiders went up 9-5 six minutes into the contest on layups by Sierra Crayton and Sheylani Peddy and regained the lead at 17-16 with 3:56 to go in the half on a pair of Erica Richardson foul shots. Eastern Michigan, though, closed the period with a 10-2 run, five each from Kelly Watts and Alyssa Pittman, to take a 26-19 advantage into the break.

An Erica Richardson layup drew Wright State to within four at 28-24 with 18:34 remaining, but the Eagles blew the game open from there by scoring the next 16 points, including three Pittman three-pointers, and gradually built on the margin the rest of the way.

EMU shot 48 percent for the game, 64 percent in the second half, while WSU was at 35 percent overall, 33 percent after halftime. The Eagles also hit 11 of 18 threes, six of eight the final 20 minutes, compared to just three of 13 for the Raiders.

Eastern Michigan also hit 13 of 17 foul shots to Wright State's six of 15 and forced the Raiders into 27 turnovers while committing 20, resulting in a 31-13 differential in points off of turnovers.

Peddy led WSU with 14 points and five rebounds and Kanisha Ward added nine points and six assists, but no other Raider had more than six.

GAME 4

MIAMI 63, WRIGHT STATE 54
November 21, 2007, Oxford, OH

Wright State led much of the game, but managed just one field goal over the final 10:17 as the Miami RedHawks closed the contest with a 21-8 run to pull out a 63-54 decision over the Raiders Wednesday night at Millett Hall.

WSU scored the first eight points of the game, half of those coming from Sierra Crayton, before Miami finally broke through on an Ashley Hawkins jumper at the 15:16 mark. That basket, however, started the RedHawks on a 9-0 run to give Miami the lead for the first time.

A Whitney Lewis three, though, put the Raiders back ahead and the margin grew to as much as 21-11 on a Lewis basket with 5:02 remaining in the half, thanks in part to six more Crayton points. Miami, however, ended the half with a 10-3 run and went back ahead 30-27 three minutes into the second half on nine points from Jenna Schone to start the period.

A pair of three-pointers from Kanisha Ward along with a Shey Peddy layup again gave Wright State the lead at 35-30 and the Raiders stayed in front until a Schone three tied the game again at 42 at the 12:03 mark.

Peddy connected on a three from the right corner to break the tie with 10:17 left, but that turned out to be the final basket for the Raiders until Peddy hit another triple in the final minute. A Lewis foul shot made it a four-point game at the 9:41 mark, but Miami went in front to stay by scoring 13 unanswered points over a 4:40 span.

Four WSU players scored in double figures as Lewis, playing in her first game of the season, along with Ward and Peddy each had 12. Crayton added a near double-double of 11 points and nine rebounds.

GAME 5

CAL POLY 80, WRIGHT STATE 76
November 24, 2007, San Luis Obispo, CA

Three starters scored 20 points each and another added 15, but it wasn't enough for Wright State as the Cal Poly Mustangs took the lead midway through the second half and went on to an 80-76 decision Saturday night at the Cal Poly Holiday Beach Classic in San Luis Obispo, California.

The Raider lead was just 23-20 until WSU scored nine unanswered points, four of those coming from Whitney Lewis, to go up 32-20 with 5:20 remaining in the first half. Cal Poly responded with a 15-2 run of its own to regain the advantage at 35-34, but two Kanisha Ward foul shots and one from Tatianna Hall in the final seconds helped Wright State gain a 39-38 halftime edge.

A 7-2 burst, all coming from Shey Peddy, put Wright State ahead 48-43 with 14:22 to play, only to see the Mustangs go in front to stay at 51-50 at the 12:18 mark, six of the points by Tamara Wells.

Ward connected on a three to trim the Cal Poly lead to 54-53 with 10:27 left, but the Mustangs maintained their slight edge and looked to be in control as a Megan Harrison layup made it 76-67 with 3:22 to play.

The Raiders came as close at 78-76 on a Sierra Crayton put-back with 10 seconds remaining, but two Sparkle Anderson foul shots at the 3.8-second mark provided the final margin.

Crayton, Lewis and Peddy each scored 20 for the Raiders while Ward added 15. Crayton added seven rebounds while Ward dished out five assists and Peddy four along with three steals.

Harrison paced Cal Poly with 17 points, 15 coming in the second half, while two Mustangs scored in double figures off the bench in Anderson (12) and Wells (10). Lisa McBride chipped in 11.

GAME 6

WRIGHT STATE 87, NORTH DAKOTA STATE 80
November 25, 2007, San Luis Obispo, CA

Behind a 31-point performance from Shey Peddy and three other Raiders scoring in double figures, Wright State picked up its first win of the season Sunday afternoon by defeating the North Dakota State Bison 87-80 at the Cal Poly Holiday Beach Classic in San Luis Obispo, California.

Wright State trailed the entire first half as the Bison twice had 10-point leads, including 25-15 after a Brenda Slyt layup with 11:36 remaining. The Raiders, though, rallied to tie the game at 28 on a Peddy layup and after falling behind 43-35 with two minutes left in the period, closed the half with an 11-4 burst, six of those coming from Peddy, to just 47-46 at the break.

Another Peddy basket gave WSU its first lead of the day at 48-47 a minute into the second half, but again North Dakota State looked to be in position to put the game out of reach as a Jerri Penley layup made it 70-62 with 8:23 to go.

Seven more Peddy points, however, keyed a 9-2 run to cut the margin to one and a three from the freshman guard tied the game at 74 at the 4:08 mark.

Kanisha Ward put the Raiders ahead to stay with a driving layup along the left baseline with three minutes left and after two Whitney Lewis foul shots, another Peddy layup extended the lead to 80-74.

Peddy led all scorers with 31 points for the Raiders, marking the first time a Wright State player has scored 30 or more in a game since Tiffany Webb also had 31 at Milwaukee on February 27, 2003. She also added four rebounds, four assists and three steals.

Lewis, who joined Peddy on the All-Tournament Team, added 18 points and seven rebounds while Sierra Crayton posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 rebounds. Ward chipped in 11, all but one coming in the second half.

GAME 7

WRIGHT STATE 57, CANISIUS 40

December 1, 2007, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State shot just 29 percent from the field for the game, but it was good enough for a win as the Raiders dominated the second half in defeating the Canisius Golden Griffins 57-40 at the Nutter Center Saturday afternoon.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half as the game was scoreless until J.J. Williams hit two foul shots at the 15:41 mark to give Canisius a 2-0 lead. WSU finally broke through with a Sierra Crayton layup a minute later, but the Raiders later trailed 15-8 with 8:51 remaining in the period following back-to-back Laura Buetow baskets.

Three Heather Parrish free throws started Wright State on the comeback trail and after two from Crayton, a Whitney Lewis three along with a Charne Dixon jumper capped off a 10-0 Raider run to give Wright State the lead back at 18-15.

A Brianna Lucas three, though, tied the game again and despite Wright State going back up on a pair of Crayton free throws, Canisius scored the final three points to even the score at 20 at halftime.

WSU went in front to stay by scoring the first seven points of the third quarter, including a Kanisha Ward three, and after a Brittane Russell jumper and three broke that string, the Raiders started another by scoring 15 unanswered points over a 7:11 span, seven of those coming from Whitney Lewis, to go up 44-25.

Wright State held on the rest of the way and led by as much as 24 on a Ward jumper with 3:27 left.

Lewis led the way for the Raiders with a double-double of 15 points and 10 rebounds while Ward also had 15 points, all coming in the second half, along with seven steals and six rebounds. Crayton had a near double-double of nine points and nine boards, Tatianna Hall six points and six rebounds in her first collegiate start, and Parrish six points off the bench.

GAME 8

WAKE FOREST 64, WRIGHT STATE 46

December 5, 2007, Winston-Salem, NC

Wright State trailed by just two at the half, but managed just four field goals in the second half as the Wake Forest Demon Deacons pulled away for a 64-46 decision at the Joel Coliseum in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Wednesday night.

Wake Forest led 14-5 early, but after consecutive threes from Kanisha Ward trimmed the margin to three, the Raiders hung close the rest of the half as the Demon Deacons never had an advantage greater than six the rest of the period. A Sierra Crayton layup at the 3:48 mark cut the deficit to 22-21 and Wright State was down only 25-23 at the break as Tatianna Hall connected on a baseline jumper with just under a minute remaining in the half.

That jumper, however, turned out to be the last field goal for the Raiders until LaShawna Thomas had a layup with 9:43 to play. During that stretch, Wake Forest outscored WSU 20-4 to open up a 45-27 lead.

Wright State connected on four of 20 shots over the final 20 minutes to finish the night at 28 percent overall while Wake Forest shot 47 percent for the game, 54 percent in the second half. The Demon Deacons also dominated the boards 46-22, including a 20-10 edge on the offensive end, and led in points in the paint 30-12.

Shey Peddy led the Raiders with 12 points while Ward had 11, Crayton 10 along with six rebounds, and Hall nine points off the bench.

Corinne Groves paced Wake Forest with 12 points while three other Demon Deacons had nine each.

GAME 9

CINCINNATI 73, WRIGHT STATE 66
December 11, 2007, Cincinnati, OH

Wright State rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to lead by one with seven minutes remaining, but could not hold on as the Cincinnati Bearcats pulled away late for a 73-66 win Tuesday night at Fifth Third Arena.

The Raiders trailed 15-14 after two LaShawna Thomas free throws at the 11:52 mark of the first half, but Cincinnati followed with a 10-0 run, eight of those coming from Jill Stephens, and later went up 34-18 with 6:13 remaining on a fast-break layup by Carla Jacobs.

WSU responded with nine straight of its own to cut the deficit to seven and came as close as seven again twice more in the half, only to see the Bearcats take a 44-34 lead into halftime as Cincinnati shot 67 percent over the first 20 minutes compared to 50 percent for the Raiders.

The UC lead seesawed between seven and 12 in the second half until a 12-2 run gave Wright State a 61-60 edge, capped off by a running baseline jumper by Thomas at the 7:06 mark.

Two foul shots by Tenishia Benson, though, put the Bearcats back up for good, but the Raiders still hung close, trailing just 67-66 on a Whitney Lewis three with 2:43 left.

That turned out to be the final points of the game for Wright State, however, as Cincinnati closed out the contest by scoring the last six points, all from the foul line.

Wright State shot 41 percent overall compared to Cincinnati's 50 percent, even though the Bearcats shot 29 percent the final 20 minutes. The Raiders hit nine of 25 from three-point range to only one of six for UC, but the Bearcats made up the difference by going 18 of 24 from the free throw line, 15 of 19 in the second half, to just seven of eight for WSU.

Just four Raiders dented the scoring column as Lewis led the way with 21, 16 of those in the second half. Thomas added 20, 13 in the first half, Tatianna Hall 16 and Kanisha Ward nine.

GAME 10

DAYTON 65, WRIGHT STATE 46
December 16, 2007, Dayton, OH

Wright State led by one six minutes into the game, but Dayton followed with a 22-5 run as the Flyers went on to a 65-46 win Sunday afternoon at UD Arena.

The Raiders trailed in the first half until a Tatianna Hall foul shot and a three by Kanisha Ward gave WSU a 10-9 edge at the 13:44 mark. From there, however, it was all Dayton as the Flyers scored the next 10 points, including two Kiki Lund threes, and later had a 12-0 burst, four each from Kelly Keil and Brittany Holterman, to make it 31-15 with three minutes remaining in the period.

Dayton went up 43-23 on a Kristin Daughtery jumper five minutes into the second half, only to see Wright State score the next nine points, capped off by steals and fast-break layups from Shey Peddy and LaShawna Thomas. Kendal Ross broke the string for UD with a three, but the Raiders answered with a Thomas jumper and a Charne Dixon foul shots to trail just 46-35 with 8:43 left.

The Flyers, however, put the game out of reach with an 11-2 run over the next four minutes.

Dayton shot 58 percent from the field for the game while the Raiders were at 32 percent. Wright State held a 32-30 rebounding advantage on the taller Flyers, but UD led in points in the paint 30-24 and hit 10 of 19 from the foul line compared to eight of 16 for WSU.

Sierra Crayton led the Raiders with 13 points while Peddy had 12 and Thomas eight along with seven rebounds.

Holterman paced Dayton with 14 points while Lund added 12 off the bench. Overall, 11 Flyers scored as UD had a 32-5 advantage in points off the bench.

GAME 11

WRIGHT STATE 71, EVANSVILLE 70

December 21, 2007, Ervin J. Nutter Center

In a game that featured 10 ties and 13 lead changes, the final lead change came in the closing second as a buzzer-beating jumper in the lane by Shey Peddy gave Wright State a 71-70 win over Evansville at the Nutter Center Friday night.

Evansville led for most of the first half, the biggest margin being 24-14 following an Anaris Sickles layup with 9:18 remaining in the period. The Raiders, however, scored the next 10 points over a four-minute span to tie the game, half of those coming from Peddy.

The Purple Aces again built a lead, this time at 35-28 with under a minute to play, only to see WSU cut the deficit to one at the break by scoring the final six points.

Neither team had more than a three-point advantage in the second half until a 6-0 burst by LaShawna Thomas gave the Raiders a 54-47 lead. Evansville, however, answered right back with eight straight of its own to go back in front, including threes from Ashley Austin and Rebekah Parker.

Two Sierra Crayton foul shots at the 1:59 mark put the Raiders up 67-66, only to see Evansville's Shannon Novosel hit two of her own with 1:04 left to give the Aces the lead back. Crayton hit two more at the 44.3-second mark to make it 69-68, but Evansville looked to be in position for the win as Novosel also hit two more with 24 seconds left and the Aces had possession after the Raiders missed a three attempt.

A turnover, however, gave Wright State another chance on its side of the court at the 4.7-second mark and the Raiders took advantage as Peddy took the inbounds pass from Ward, dribbled to the right side of the lane and banked in a short jumper for the game-winner just before time expired.

All five Wright State starters scored nine or more points, led by Peddy's 16 points along with eight rebounds and five assists. Thomas also scored 16 while Whitney Lewis had 15 along with eight rebounds, Crayton 12 and Ward nine.

GAME 12

WRIGHT STATE 57, MILWAUKEE 56

January 3, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

2008 started like 2007 ended for Wright State as following a one-point win over Evansville on December 21, the Raiders turned the trick again Thursday night, rallying from a 10-point second-half deficit to defeat the Milwaukee Panthers 57-56 in the Horizon League opener for both teams at the Nutter Center.

WSU led for much of the first half before the Panthers took their first advantage of the night at 14-12 on a Traci Edwards basket with 4:46 remaining in the period. The Raiders were still down just two until Milwaukee closed the half with a 9-4 burst over the final two minutes, all but two of those points coming from the foul line, to go up 27-20 at the break.

A three by Jineen Williams made it 41-31 with 12:56 to play, but Wright State followed by scoring the next 11 points, five coming from Whitney Lewis and four by Shey Peddy, to go back in front.

The Panthers went back up 48-42 on two Jodie McClain foul shots at the 5:36 mark, only to see the Raiders go on a 12-2 run over the next four minutes to regain the lead for good, half of those by LaShawna Thomas. Two Edwards foul shots trimmed the margin to two, but Peddy responded on WSU's next possession with a three just right of the lane to make it 57-52 with 1:19 to play.

Edwards connected on a jumper with just over a minute left and Turquoise McCain made it a one-point game with a steal and fast-break layup, but the Panthers would get no closer as, despite a Raider shot-clock violation with 4.7 seconds left, Milwaukee had a turnover of its own at the 0.2-second mark to close out the game.

Thomas led all scorers with 18 for the Raiders, 12 coming in the second half, while Peddy had 12. Three others had nine for WSU, including Lewis, Sierra Crayton and Kanisha Ward, while Crayton also added 11 rebounds.

GAME 13

GREEN BAY 67, WRIGHT STATE 52

January 5, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State was tied with Green Bay with 13 minutes to play, but the Phoenix outscored the Raiders 19-2 over an eight-minute span and went on to a 67-52 decision in Horizon League action at the Nutter Center Saturday afternoon.

Both teams came out strong offensively as WSU took a 18-16 lead on a Whitney Lewis three just seven minutes into the contest. The Raider advantage grew to 24-18 following a LaShawna Thomas jumper at the 6:17 mark, only to see Green Bay eventually tied the game at 26 three minutes later on a jumper and two free throws by Kayla Groh.

A Groh triple and Lavesa Glover layup helped give the Phoenix a 33-30 halftime edge, but Wright State tied the game for the 10th time at 40 on a Kanisha Ward three with 13:09 remaining in the second half. Celeste Hoewisch, however, broke the deadlock with a jumper and that started a 12-0 Phoenix run that included threes from Kati Harty and Rachel Porath.

The Green Bay margin eventually grew to 67-47 in the final minute before the Raiders scored the final five points.

After shooting 50 percent in the first half, Wright State cooled to 39 percent the final 20 minutes to finish at 44 percent overall while Green Bay, after a 48 percent first half, shot 45 percent in the second half, including six of 10 from three-point range, to end up at 46 percent.

The Phoenix also led in points in the paint (30-14), points off of turnovers (20-12) and second-chance points (11-2).

Lewis led all scorers with 16 for Wright State, 12 coming in the first half, while Shey Peddy had 15, nine in the second half, and Thomas 10.

Four Green Bay starters scored in double figures as Porath had 15, 10 in the second half, Groh 13, Glover 12 and Harty 12.

GAME 14

WRIGHT STATE 71, DETROIT 53

January 12, 2008, Detroit, MI

Four Raider starters scored in double figures and two others had eight or more points as Wright State picked up its first road win of the season Saturday afternoon with this decision over the Detroit Titans in Horizon League action at Calihan Hall.

Detroit controlled the opening 10 minutes as the Titans jumped out to a 22-12 advantage following a Heather Hatter layup with 9:34 remaining in the first half.

The Raiders, however, responded with a 19-2 run over the next seven minutes, one that saw seven different Wright State players score, including two threes from Kanisha Ward, to go up 31-24 at the 2:42 mark.

While WSU maintained the lead the rest of the way, the margin was just nine at 52-43 until the Raiders broke the game open with a 11-4 burst, four of those coming from Tatianna Hall.

Detroit held a 37-30 rebounding edge, including 16-7 on the offensive end, yet it was the Raiders who held a 36-22 advantage in points in the paint. WSU also led in points off of turnovers (18-9) and fast-break points (12-4).

Peddy led Wright State with 13 points, six rebounds and four assists while Whitney Lewis and LaShawna Thomas each had 12 and Ward 11. Erica Richardson, in her first action since injuring her ankle in late November, had nine points off the bench while Hall chipped in eight.

Sandi Brown paced all scorers with a near double-double of 21 points and nine rebounds for Detroit while Chanica Hall had 12 and Keashawn Bond posted a near double-double of nine points and 10 boards.

The win was the largest margin of victory on the road for the Raiders since an 80-53 decision at Loyola on February 24, 2005.

GAME 15

YOUNGSTOWN STATE 61, WRIGHT STATE 58
January 17, 2008, Youngstown, OH

Wright State rallied from an early 12-point deficit to lead by as much as seven in the second half, but Youngstown State regained the advantage and held off a late charge as the Penguins defeated the Raiders in Horizon League action at the Beeghly Center Thursday night.

The Penguins used a 10-0 run to break a 7-7 tie, five each by Heather Karner and Jessica Schloemp, and later led 21-9 on an Ashley Pendleton jumper with 12:01 remaining in the first half. WSU, though, chipped away from there, closing the margin to 28-23 at the break and started the second half with a 14-2 burst, eight of those coming from Shey Peddy, to go up 37-30 with 15:47 to play.

YSU eventually tied the game at 41 on a Karner three-point play, only to see Whitney Lewis give Wright State the lead again with a three. A Peddy layup later made it 46-45, but the Penguins followed by scoring the next 11 points, including threes from Velissa Vaughn, Karner and Schloemp, to make it 56-46 at the 5:14 mark.

Wright State, though, trimmed the margin to 56-53 on a Crayton free throw with 2:10 remaining and still had a chance as Peddy connected on a three from the left wing to make it 59-56 with 15.7 seconds left.

Lauren Branson, however, made both foul shot attempts at the 13.9-second mark and, following a Peddy layup, Vaughn hit one of two with five seconds to provide the final margin.

The Raiders had one last shot to tie, but Peddy's desperation three went off the glass and the right side of the rim as time expired.

Peddy led all scorers with 20 for Wright State, but no other Raider managed more than eight as Crayton had that along with eight rebounds and Erica Richardson had eight off the bench. LaShawna Thomas added seven points and seven assists.

GAME 16

CLEVELAND STATE 68, WRIGHT STATE 54
January 19, 2008, Cleveland, OH

Wright State trailed by just two at halftime, but could not overcome Cleveland State shooting 52 percent in the second half as the Vikings went on to this Horizon League win at the Wolstein Center Saturday night.

Whitney Lewis tied the game at 7-7 with a three-pointer three minutes into the game, but CSU followed with a 9-0 run, five of those from Kailey Klein, to go back in front. The Raiders, though, hung close the rest of the half and trailed just 32-30 at the break on a Charne Dixon baseline jumper in the final seconds.

Two Lewis foul shots again brought the Raiders to within two at 34-32 with 19:23 left and the margin was only 40-36 until the Vikings had a 9-2 run, including two Brittany Korth threes, to go up 49-38.

Wright State could get no closer than seven the rest of the way as Cleveland State broke the game open with a 9-0 burst to make it 64-48 with 3:41 to play.

The Raiders shot 62 percent from the field in the first half, but cooled to 35 percent the final 20 minutes to finish at 48 percent overall while the Vikings were hot throughout, shooting over 50 percent in both halves to end up at 55 percent for the game.

Lewis led WSU with 18 points while Shey Peddy had 12, LaShawna Thomas eight and Kanisha Ward six along with seven assists.

Dominique Butler paced all scorers with 20 for Cleveland State while Klein had 13 and Angel Roque 11.

GAME 17

WRIGHT STATE 51, VALPARAISO 50

January 24, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

For the third time this season, Wright State prevailed by one point as the Raiders outscored Valparaiso 12-2 the final 7:04, including a Shey Peddy jumper with 5.5 seconds remaining, to pull out this win over the Crusaders Thursday night at the Nutter Center.

Both teams came out firing early as WSU went up 16-11 on a LaShawna Thomas jumper at the 12:08 mark of the first half. The Raiders, however, managed just six points the rest of the period as Valparaiso regained the lead at 24-22 on a Leah Hochstetler three with 4:19 left and took a 28-22 advantage into the break on back-to-back baskets by Agnieszka Kulaga.

The Crusaders continued to build on the lead in the early going of the second half and were up as much as 40-30 following two Kulaga free throws with 12:03 to play. Valparaiso maintained the margin over the next five minutes as Kulaga layup made it 48-39 at the 7:04 mark.

An Erica Richardson basket, however, started the Raiders on their comeback and, after a Charne Dixon layup, Richardson added two more of her own to cut the deficit to 48-47 with 2:54 left.

Kulaga pushed the margin back up to three with a pair of foul shots at the 2:11 mark, only to see Wright State draw within one again on a Thomas jumper. After three scoreless possessions, two by Valparaiso, the stage was set for Peddy, as she drove down the left side of the lane and hit a jumper with 5.5 seconds left to give WSU the lead for good.

The Crusaders had one last chance, but Peddy stripped the ball away from Kulaga at midcourt to close out the game.

Four Wright State players scored in double figures, led by Whitney Lewis with 14 and Peddy with 12 to go along with five assists and six steals. Thomas added 11 while Richardson had 10 points and five rebounds off the bench.

Kulaga posted a double-double of 18 points and 10 rebounds for Valparaiso.

GAME 18

WRIGHT STATE 70, BUTLER 65

January 26, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State trailed by four with 3:47 left, but outscored Butler 13-4 the rest of the way as the Raiders defeated the Bulldogs 70-65 Saturday afternoon at the Nutter Center.

Butler led much of the first half, but WSU hung close and took its first lead at 29-27 on a LaShawna Thomas jumper with 1:53 remaining in the period. Whitney Lewis followed on the next possession with a three pointer from the top of the key to put the Raiders up five heading into the break.

Wright State hit 12 of 18 shots in the first half compared to Butler shooting 39 percent.

The Raiders extended the advantage to 38-29 on a Shey Peddy fast-break layup with 16:44 left, but Butler responded with a 18-4 run over the next seven minutes, five each from Candyce Brown and Susan Lester, to go up 47-42.

The Bulldog lead then seasawed between one and four until two Lewis foul shots tied the game at 61 with 2:46 remaining. Lester hit one of two from the line to give Butler the edge at the 2:32 mark, but a Lewis layup put the Raiders up for good at 63-62 with 1:41 left.

Peddy followed on WSU's next possession with a three from the left side and then hit two foul shots at the 29.7-second mark to make it 68-62. Lewis added two more from the stripe with 19.4 seconds left before Butler's Azjah Bass rounded out the scoring with a three.

Wright State shot 50 percent from the field overall and hit 20 of 25 from the foul line, including 14 of 15 in the second half, while Butler shot 56 percent in the second half to end up at 48 percent for the game and was 14 of 17 from the line.

Peddy led the Raiders with 20 points, 14 in the second half, while Lewis added 18 points and eight rebounds. Thomas chipped in 13 points and four assists while Sierra Crayton had 12 off the bench.

GAME 19

UIC 63, WRIGHT STATE 60
January 31, 2008, Chicago, IL

Shey Peddy had 19 points and Whitney Lewis became the 16th Wright State player to reach the 1000-point plateau, but it wasn't enough as the UIC Flames opened up an 11-point second half lead and then held on for the win at the UIC Pavilion Thursday night.

Neither team had more than a four-point advantage in the first half as the Raiders shot 54 percent from the field, including three of four from three-point range, while UIC was at 48 percent overall and three of eight from behind the arc.

Up 36-34 at the break, the Flames scored the first five points of the second half on a Briana Hinkle jumper and a Taylor Manley three. UIC maintained the lead from there and eventually extended it to 61-50 on a Manley jumper with 6:53 remaining.

WSU, however, answered with six straight points on layups from Sierra Crayton, Charne Dixon and Peddy and trimmed the deficit to three on a Dixon layup with 41 seconds left.

After forcing a turnover on UIC's next possession, the Raiders had one last chance, but LaShawna Thomas' three attempt in the final seconds from the right wing was short off the side of the rim.

Peddy paced the Raiders with 19 points, 13 coming in the first half, and added five rebounds, five assists and five steals. Thomas added 10 points while Lewis and Crayton each had eight.

The eight points for Lewis give her exactly 1000 for her career as she becomes the 16th Raider all-time to reach the milestone.

Jessie Miller led UIC with 19 points while Hinkle had 18, 14 in the first half, along with seven rebounds and four assists and Manley had 15, all but two coming after halftime.

GAME 20

WRIGHT STATE 56, LOYOLA 49
February 2, 2008, Chicago, IL

Wright State saw a six-point lead slip away with a minute remaining, but the Raiders scored the final seven points, five coming from Shey Peddy, to record this win over the Ramblers at the Gentile Center Saturday afternoon.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half as WSU shot 32 percent and Loyola 38 percent, but it was the Raiders that held an 18-14 advantage at the break as they scored the final seven points of the period on an Erica Richardson three-point play and a pair of scores from Tatianna Hall.

Wright State went up 27-20 on a Peddy layup at the 15:44 mark of the second half and led by as much as 33-25 following a Sierra Crayton jumper with 11:06 left to play.

Loyola closed to within one at 33-32 at the 8:13 mark, but the Raiders maintained the lead and looked to be in good shape as Whitney Lewis hit a foul shot at the 2:22 mark to put WSU up 47-41.

The second attempt, however, was waived off due to a lane violation and that sparked the Ramblers into an 8-2 run over the next 1:21 to tie the game at 49, the final three coming on a Maggie McCloskey triple from the top of the key.

Peddy, though, took over from there as she drove down the left side of the lane for a three-point play at the 43-second mark and, after a steal from the freshman guard, converted two foul shots with 25 seconds left to make it 54-49. Following a Loyola miss, LaShawna Thomas hit two free throws with 14 seconds left to round out the scoring.

Peddy led all scorers with 18 and added four assists and four steals while Thomas chipped in 15 points, nine in the second half.

GAME 21

WRIGHT STATE 70, DETROIT 59

February 9, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State shot 58 percent overall, 69 percent in the second half, and hit 20 of 26 free throws as the Raiders won at the Nutter Center Saturday afternoon.

A 10-2 run, which included a three and layup from Whitney Lewis, put the Raiders up 20-9 with 8:49 to play in the first half. The Titans, though, followed with a 15-2 burst of their own, one that featured a pair of Kealy McNally three-pointers, to take the lead for the first time at 24-22 at the 3:28 mark.

Wright State, however, closed the period by scoring the final 10 points, the final five by Charne Dixon, to take a 32-24 advantage at the half.

Layups by LaShawna Thomas and Peddy extended the Raider lead into double figures in the opening minute of the second half and Wright State gradually build on the margin from there, leading by as much as 54-34 on a Kanisha Ward three at the 9:34 mark.

Detroit closed to within eight at 67-59 in the final minute on a Chanica Hall three and two Sandi Brown foul shots, but the Titans could get no closer as Erica Richardson rounded out the scoring with a three-point play.

Wright State hit 11 of 16 shots, including both three-point attempts, in the final 20 minutes to finish the game at 58 percent and also connected on 14 of 19 from the foul line in the second half and 20 of 26 overall. Detroit, meanwhile, hit just 12 of 33 attempts in the second half for 36 percent to end up at 40 percent overall and was 15 of 22 from the stripe.

Peddy led WSU with 17 points, including 10 of 12 from the foul line, while Lewis added 15 and Thomas 10. Ward had nine off the bench.

GAME 22

WRIGHT STATE 51, CLEVELAND STATE 43

February 14, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

A 20-7 run to close out the first half gave Wright State a 17-point halftime advantage and the Raiders led by as much as 19 in the second half before holding on down the stretch for this win over the Vikings in Horizon League action Thursday night at the Nutter Center.

The Raiders raced out to an early 10-point lead to open the contest as Erica Richardson posted five quick points in the first seven minutes. The Vikings, though, would cut the lead to 15-11 with 7:58 remaining on a Dominique Butler layup.

WSU, however, followed with that 20-7 run, six coming from Shey Peddy and five by LaShawna Thomas, to go up 35-18 at the break.

The Raiders shot 48 percent from the field overall in the first 20 minutes, including three of six from three-point range, while CSU hit for just 28 percent overall and was two of nine from behind the arc.

Wright State would build on its lead in the second half, pushing it to as much as 47-28 on a Richardson three-point play with 9:14 remaining.

That turned out to be the final basket of the game for the Raiders, however, as Cleveland State outscored WSU 15-4 the rest of the way.

Neither team shot the ball well in the second half as Wright State shot 23 percent to end up at 37 percent overall while the Vikings hit for 33 percent after halftime in finishing at 31 percent for the game. WSU led in points in the paint (26-16) and points off of turnovers (20-10).

Pacing the Raiders was Richardson who poured in 14 points, grabbed six rebounds and recorded three blocks in the contest. Whitney Lewis posted a near double-double as she grabbed nine rebounds and tallied 10 points.

Stephanie Crosley paced Cleveland State with a near double-double of 10 points and nine rebounds off the bench.

GAME 23

YOUNGSTOWN STATE 66, WRIGHT STATE 58
February 16, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State shot 46 percent for the game, but could not overcome nine three-pointers and 17 of 19 foul shooting by Youngstown State as the Penguins defeated the Raiders 66-58 at the Nutter Center Saturday afternoon.

Shey Peddy opened the scoring with a three from the right corner and WSU went up 7-6 on a fast-break layup from the freshman guard, but that turned out to be the final lead of the day for the Raiders as the Penguins scored 13 of the game's next 14 points, five coming from Heather Karner, to take a 19-8 advantage with 11:52 remaining in the first half.

Wright State cut the deficit to five twice over the remainder of the period, but YSU still held a 36-27 halftime advantage following two Lauren Branson foul shots with one second left.

The Raiders shot 48 percent in the opening 20 minutes, but the Penguins were even hotter as they hit for 52 percent, including five of six from three-point range.

Back-to-back LaShawna Thomas baskets drew Wright State to within seven at 46-39 with 14:30 left, but Youngstown State answered with consecutive threes from Branson to push the lead back into double figures.

A Karner triple gave the Penguins their largest lead at 59-42 with 6:36 to play, but Wright State followed with 10 straight points over a three-minute span, six by Thomas.

The Raiders then came as close as six on two different occasions, but could get no closer as Branson hit seven of eight foul shots to account for all of Youngstown State's scoring the final 6:36.

Peddy led the Raiders with 17 points and added five assists and five steals, while Thomas had 14, all but two in the second half. Whitney Lewis posted a double-double of 11 points and 13 rebounds.

Four starters scored in double figures for Youngstown State, paced by Karner's 19 to go with five assists. Branson had 17, including an 11 of 12 performance from the foul line, while Tiara Scott had 12 and Jessica Schloemp 10.

GAME 24

WRIGHT STATE 65, BUTLER 60
February 21, 2008, Indianapolis, IN

Wright State trailed by as much as 10 in the first half, by five at the break and again by five with 11:51 to play, but the Raiders outscored Butler 25-15 the rest of the way to pull out this decision Thursday night at Hinkle Fieldhouse.

LaShawna Thomas opened the scoring with a three, but that would be the only first-half lead WSU would have as Butler gradually built a 25-15 advantage at the 7:48 mark.

Shey Peddy, though, answered with a three of her own and another triple from Thomas allowed the Raiders to close the deficit to 27-24. The Bulldogs twice went back up seven in the closing minutes of the period, but a last-second jumper by Charne Dixon trimmed the Bulldog lead to 33-28 at the break.

Lade Akande gave the Bulldogs a 41-32 advantage with a layup at the 16:08 mark of the second half, but that turned out to be the last Butler basket for the next 12 minutes as the Raiders went up 46-45 on a Thomas layup with 7:07 left.

The Wright State edge seesawed between one and three until two free throw and a layup by Peddy made it 54-47 at the 5:08 mark. The Raiders still led by seven on a Sierra Crayton layup with 2:48 left, but Butler followed with an 8-2 run to close the deficit to 59-58, the final three coming on a Brittany Bowen three-point play with 42 seconds remaining.

The Raiders faced a shot clock violation on their next possession, but Kanisha Ward beat the buzzer as she drove along the left baseline and hit a short jumper inside the lane at the 11.9-second mark.

Candace Jones hit two foul shots with eight seconds left, but Ward sealed the victory with two free throws at the 5.8-second mark and two more with 2.5 seconds remaining following a Butler turnover.

Thomas led the Raiders with 20 points, tying her season high, while Peddy added 18. Crayton added eight off the bench with Ward scoring six of her seven in the final 11.6 seconds to go along with six assists.

GAME 25

WRIGHT STATE 75, VALPARAISO 64
February 23, 2008, Valparaiso, IN

Wright State shot 70 percent in the first half in building a 15-point halftime lead, but had to hold off a late Valparaiso rally before defeating the Crusaders 75-64 in Horizon League action at the Athletic-Recreation Center Saturday afternoon.

Valparaiso went up 8-5 on a Whitney Farris layup at the 16:41 mark of the first half, but that turned out to be the final lead of the night for the Crusaders as Wright State followed with eight straight points and a 21-4 run overall over the next seven minutes, a streak that saw seven different Raiders score.

The Crusaders closed the margin to 10 on three separate occasions over the rest of the half, but WSU scored the final four points on two Kanisha Ward foul shots and a Shey Peddy layup to take its biggest lead of the game at 38-23 heading into halftime.

The Raider margin was still 15 at 60-45 following a Whitney Lewis three with seven minutes to play, but Valparaiso followed with a 14-2 run over the next 3:36 to make it 62-59 with 3:24 left.

A putback by Lewis and two Ward free throws, however, stemmed the tide and despite the Crusaders cutting the deficit to 66-62 at the 1:05 mark, Valparaiso would get no closer as the Raiders hit nine of 10 foul shots the rest of the way.

Wright State shot 48 percent in the second half to finish at 58 percent overall while Valpo was at 35 percent. Both teams had big days at the foul line as the Raiders ended up 22 of 33 while the Crusaders were 29 of 35.

Five Wright State players finished in double figures, led by Lewis with 16 and Peddy with 15. Ward added 12 off the bench while LaShawna Thomas had 11 as did Charne Dixon, marking a career high for the sophomore guard.

Launa Hochstetler led Valparaiso with 17, while Agnieszka Kulaga had 12 and Aimee Litka 10.

WRIGHT STATE 64, LOYOLA 57
February 28, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State trailed by one at the half, but scored the first four points of the second half to take the lead for good and then held on down the stretch at the Nutter Center Thursday night.

Baskets by Shey Peddy and LaShawna Thomas opened the scoring and Thomas extended the Raider lead to 13-5 at the 11:01 mark with a layup and a three. Loyola, though, followed with a 13-3 run, including two threes from Maggie McCloskey and one by Jessica Hylton, to take the lead for the first time at 18-16 with 7:35 remaining in the first half.

The Ramblers eventually went up 27-22 on a Brittany Boeke layup, but layups from Peddy and Charne Dixon in the closing seconds trimmed the deficit to one at the break.

Wright State shot 38 percent from the field in the first half compared to Loyola's 35 percent.

After an Erica Richardson free throw tied the game, WSU went in front to stay on a Whitney Lewis three 1:32 into the second half. The Raiders, though, could not manage more than a six-point advantage over the next 16 minutes until a Peddy jumper made it 59-51 with 2:39 left.

Two Keisha Collins layups cut the margin to 61-57 at the 1:22 mark, but Loyola would go scoreless the rest of the way as Peddy hit three of four foul shots in the final minute to round out the scoring.

Both teams shot well the final 20 minutes as Loyola hit for 54 percent and Wright State 58 percent, but the Raiders also made 15 of 23 at the line to just two for two for the Ramblers.

Thomas paced all scorers with a season-high 24 points, 14 of those coming in the first half, as she hit 11 of 13 shots on the night. Peddy added 21, 17 after halftime, as she made 11 of 12 foul shots and added six assists.

Collins led Loyola with 15 points, 11 in the second half, while Cierra Thurman had 12 off the bench and Boeke 10.

GAME 27

WRIGHT STATE 56, UIC 48

March 1, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State closed out the first half with a 15-0 run to go up 11 at the break, but had to hold off a UIC comeback attempt in the second half before defeating the Flames at the Nutter Center Saturday afternoon.

UIC hit 10 of its first 11 shots from the field over an 11-minute span, but only held a 21-18 advantage. The Flames went up 23-19 on a Taylor Manley jumper with 7:06 remaining, but it was all Wright State the rest of the half as the Raiders scored the final 15 points, five coming from Whitney Lewis, to make it 34-23 at the break.

After hitting 10 of their first 11, the Flames hit just one of 15 the rest of the half in shooting 42 percent while Wright State was at 44 percent.

The Flames cut the deficit to 38-36 on two Nicole Rinaldi foul shots with 11:16 remaining, but the Raiders responded with a Kanisha Ward three and two foul shots from Sierra Crayton.

UIC again rallied, this time to 43-42 after a Taylor Manley jumper at the 6:44 mark, but again Wright State would have an answer, this time a 10-0 run over the next three minutes, including two baskets from Crayton.

The Flames would get no closer than five the rest of the way as two foul shots by Shey Paddy and one from Crayton rounded out the scoring.

Paddy led the Raiders with a near double-double of 13 points and nine rebounds and also added five steals, while Thomas added 10 points along with six assists. Crayton also nearly had a double-double as she had 10 points and nine boards. Erica Richardson chipped in nine points and six rebounds off the bench.

Miller paced all scorers with 16 for UIC, but no other Flame managed more than eight.

GAME 28

GREEN BAY 78, WRIGHT STATE 73 (OT)

March 6, 2008, Green Bay, WI

Wright State led by seven with 5:20 to go in regulation, but Green Bay rallied to force the game into overtime and then took control in the extra period as the Phoenix defeated the Raiders at the Kress Center Thursday night.

The Raiders went in front 28-27 on an Erica Richardson jumper with 3:04 remaining in the first half, only to see Green Bay close the period with a 10-2 run, four each from Lavessa Glover and Kayla Groh, to take a 37-30 lead at the break.

Three straight triples from Whitney Lewis tied the game at 39 three minutes into the second half and another triple from Lewis put WSU up 48-44 at the 14:55 mark.

Wright State later extended its lead to 53-48 on two Shey Paddy foul shots with 13:01 remaining, but back came the Phoenix with a 9-3 burst over the next four minutes to regain the advantage at 57-56.

Paddy, though, followed with eight unanswered points of her own on a layup and a pair of threes to make it 64-57 with 5:20 left in regulation.

Green Bay again would rally to go up 67-66 with a Glover jumper with 1:59 remaining, but Richardson tied the game by hitting the first of two foul shots at the 51.3 mark.

Richardson, though, missed the second and the game headed into overtime as the Phoenix missed a three on its next possession and the Raiders could not convert on a one-and-one attempt or a jumper in the closing seconds.

The two teams exchanged scores in overtime until Glover put Green Bay up for good at 73-71 on a jumper with 2:23 left. A steal resulted in two Rachel Porath free throws and Wright State would get no closer than five the rest of the way.

Paddy led the Raiders with 24 points, 15 coming in the second half, while Lewis added 20, all but three in the second half. LaShawna Thomas chipped in 11 while Charne Dixon had eight points and six assists. The 11 threes by WSU threes tied a school record as WSU hit 11 at Loyola on February 28, 1996.

2007-08 Wright State Box Scores

GAME 29

MILWAUKEE 67, WRIGHT STATE 54
March 8, 2008, Milwaukee, WI

Wright State trailed by just four at the half, but could not overcome a 64 percent shooting day by Milwaukee as the Panthers defeated the Raiders in the regular-season finale for both teams Saturday afternoon at the Klotsche Center.

WSU jumped out to a 13-7 advantage following a Shey Peddy layup with 13:26 remaining in the first half, only to see Milwaukee respond with a 10-3 burst over the next three minutes to regain the lead. Wright State went back up four on a Sierra Crayton layup, but the Panthers scored 10 of the next 12 points and maintained that four-point margin into the halftime break at 34-30.

Milwaukee shot 68 percent from the field in the first half compared to 45 percent for the Raiders.

A Peddy three drew Wright State to within three at 38-35 four minutes into the second half, but the Panthers put the game out of reach by scoring the next 16 points.

The Panthers finished at 64 percent for the game while Wright State was at 40 percent. Milwaukee also led 40-30 in points in the paint and made 10 of 19 foul shots compared to just five of six for the Raiders. WSU forced 23 turnovers while committing 18, but it was UWM that held a 23-22 advantage in points off of turnovers.

Peddy led all scorers with 18 for the Raiders and added seven steals, five rebounds and four assists. LaShawna Thomas added 13 while Crayton chipped in nine off the bench.

Traci Edwards paced the Panthers with 17 points while Jenilee Klomstad added 15 off the bench as she hit all seven field goal attempts.

GAME 30

WRIGHT STATE 69, YOUNGSTOWN STATE 60
March 12, 2008, Ervin J. Nutter Center

Wright State shot 58 percent in the first half and had four players score in double figures as the Raiders defeated the Penguins in Horizon League quarterfinal action at the Nutter Center Wednesday night.

The WSU lead was just 12-11 nine minutes into the game until the Raiders scored eight straight points, including back-to-back threes from Whitney Lewis. A Heather Karner triple made it 25-20 with 6:27 remaining in the half, but two Shey Peddy foul shots and a jumper from the freshman guard pushed the margin up to 11 before Wright State took a 37-29 lead into the break.

WSU gradually extended the lead to 49-33 following a Peddy three-pointer at the 12:38 mark, only to see the Penguins close the gap to 50-42 after a Velissa Vaughn free throw with 8:56 left.

Back-to-back Karner threes again made it an eight-point game at 56-48 with 6:45 remaining, but Kanisha Ward responded on Wright State's next possession by banking in a three just before the shot clock expired.

Two foul shots and a layup by Erica Richardson made it 63-48 and the Raiders maintained a double-digit lead the rest of the way until two Toni Roscoe free throws rounded out the scoring.

Peddy paced all scorers with 26 for the Raiders as she hit 10 of 13 shots, including four of five from three-point range. Lewis and LaShawna Thomas each had 10 points and seven rebounds, with Thomas adding five assists, while Sierra Crayton also had 10 off the bench.

GAME 31

WRIGHT STATE 57, MILWAUKEE 55
March 14, 2008, Green Bay, WI

Wright State trailed by as much as 10 early in the second half, but the Raiders responded with a 30-13 run and held on in the Horizon League semifinals in Green Bay Friday night.

WSU led 12-8 after an Erica Richardson jumper with 12:34 remaining in the first half, but Milwaukee regained the lead with eight straight points. The Raiders went back ahead 17-16 on a Shey Peddy three at the 5:45 mark, only to see the Panthers close the period with a 10-4 run, all coming from Traci Edwards, to take a 26-21 advantage into the break.

Richardson opened the second half with a layup, but the Panthers followed with seven unanswered points, including four more by Edwards, in building their biggest lead of the night at 33-23 with 16:37 remaining.

Milwaukee still led 38-31 until eight consecutive Wright State points, capped off by a Charne Dixon layup, gave the Raiders the lead back at 39-38 at the 7:04 mark. Two Edwards foul shots tied the game at 46 with 2:38 left, but WSU looked to be in command as four Peddy foul shots along with a Whitney Lewis three made it 53-46 with 57.5 seconds remaining.

Edwards cut the margin to one with a three-point play at the 8.2-second mark, but LaShawna Thomas hit two free throws with 6.4 seconds left to put the Raiders up 57-54.

McClain made the first of two foul shots with 1.5 seconds left and intentionally missed the second in an attempt to give the Panthers a chance to tie the game, but Lewis came up with the defensive rebound as time expired.

The win marked the first time that the Raiders have ever won in the city of Green Bay in 24 tries. WSU is 0-19 against the Phoenix in Green Bay all-time and had lost four tournament games there before Friday night.

Peddy paced the Raiders with 16 points and added six rebounds and six assists, while Crayton had 12 points and eight boards off the bench, with all 12 points and five rebounds coming in the second half. Richardson also had 12 points.

GAME 32

CLEVELAND STATE 70, WRIGHT STATE 56
March 16, 2008, Green Bay, WI

Wright State trailed by just two with 5:55 remaining, but could not overcome a hot start by Cleveland State as the Vikings hit their first eight shots en route to a 70-56 decision over the Raiders in the Horizon League women's basketball championship game in Green Bay Sunday afternoon.

CSU broke a 2-2 tie with eight straight points, including a three and Layup from Brittany Korth, and the Vikings extended the margin to 26-13 with 6:47 remaining in the first half on a Kailey Klein jumper and a Dominique Butler layup.

Wright State closed the gap to 28-21 on a LaShawna Thomas three from the top of the key at the 2:46 mark, but went scoreless the rest of the period as Cleveland State went up 30-21 at the break.

Cleveland State shot 52 percent over the first 20 minutes compared to 35 percent for the Raiders, held a 17-8 edge on the boards and led 14-4 in points off of turnovers.

The Vikings took their biggest lead of the game at 36-21 by scoring the first six points of the second half, only to see Wright State close the gap to 44-41 following a Sierra Crayton layup with 11:32 remaining.

CSU answered with six straight points, but the Raiders again rallied, this time to 53-51 on a Shey Peddy jumper at the 5:55 mark.

Klein, however, followed with a three and another triple, this time by Robyn Hoying, along with a Dominique Butler layup push the lead back into double figures at 62-52. Wright State would get no closer than nine the rest of the way.

Wright State, which finished runner-up in the League tournament for the second time in four years, was led by All-Tournament Team performer Peddy, who tied a season-high with 31 points, 21 coming in the second half. Thomas added 13, but no other Raider managed more than five.
